Eisenhower Talk Slated For Tonight

Will Urge Boost In U. S. Training, Missile Research

By ROBERT E. CLARK

WASHINGTON (INS) — President Eisenhower resumes his series of national security pep talks tonight with an Oklahoma City speech dealing with one of America's "greatest and most glaring deficiencies."

Subject of the presidential address is the urgent need to expand basic research and train additional scientists to meet the spectacular challenge of Soviet space achievements.

Mr. Eisenhower was flying to Oklahoma City to deliver the speech from municipal auditorium as part of the Sooner State's 50th birthday celebration. His topic will be "Future Security."

Second Of Series

The address is the second in the series planned by the President to ease America's Sputnik jitters.

The original purpose was to reassure Americans of the nation's basic military and economic strength, but the direction has shifted with the growing recognition of what must be done to recapture the scientific lead from Russia.

In his first speech last Thursday, the President announced the appointment of Missile "Czar" James R. Killian and dealt at length on plans for speeding up the missiles program.

Tonight he will focus on the long-range problem of gearing America's education system to the task of training additional millions of youths as future scientists.

Among the proposals Mr. Eisenhower may discuss is a bonus and scholarship plan to encourage high school and college students to take basic courses in mathematics and science.

There has also been speculation that new administration proposals for federal aid to education will be tailored to the job of stepping up the output of fledgling scientists.

Another phase of the problem which concerns the President is the urgent need to increase inducements to scientists and technologists to serve in the armed forces and other vital government research projects.

Says Program Hampered

Gen. Nathan S. Twining, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, said in a Cleveland speech last night that American missile development is being hampered by the constant loss of military and civilian experts.

He said "means must be found to encourage more of our train-

Garcia Lead Rises While Mate Trails

Magsaysay's Heir Seen Elected, Gets Huge Vote Margin

By DON HUTH

MANILA (AP)—President Carlos P. Garcia widened his lead in Philippine presidential election returns today, but his running mate trailed far behind a popular former congressman and diplomat.

Garcia, 61-year-old Nacionalista party candidate and political heir of the late Ramon Magsaysay, moved well ahead of Liberal party candidate Jose Yulo, 63-year-old sugar king. Garcia was winning almost 40 per cent of the votes in the five-man race.

Laurel Runs Far Behind

In the vice presidential race, Diosdado Macapagal, a Liberal, piled up an overwhelming lead over House Speaker Jose B. Laurel Jr., the Nacionalista nominee and member of one of the Philippines' leading political families.

With Garcia and Macapagal victorious, the Philippines for the first time would have a president and vice president of opposing parties. Both favored continued strong cooperation with the United States.

Returns from nearly all 53 provinces, representing about 20 per cent of yesterday's vote, gave:

Garcia 409,214; Yulo 301,367; Manuel P. Manahan, Progressive 250,828; Sen. Claro M. Recto, Nationalist-Citizens, 110,209; and Antonio Quirino, Independent Liberal, 22,804.

Macapagal had 573,213 votes to 307,101 for Laurel.

Garcia's Nacionalistas appeared likely to dominate Congress again. The Philippine News Service said the Nacionalistas apparently would take at least 70 of the 102 House of Representatives seats. Five Nacionalistas, two Liberals, and a Progressive led the field in the eight senatorial races at stake. Senators are elected on a nationwide basis.

The President's party held 86 House seats and 23 of the 24 Senate seats in the last Congress.

With the 54,000-man Philippine army on the alert to prevent violence the election was one of the quietest on record. Only one political killing was reported.

Nine Killed In Clash

But nine persons were killed yesterday in a clash between police and bandits in Cavite province south of Manila. And 11 persons were reported dead or missing as a result of Typhoon Kit, which moved northward today through the mountains of northwest Luzon.

Victorious in every election of his 31 years in public life, Garcia succeeded to the presidency last March when Magsaysay was killed in a plane crash. He immediately set out to win a four-year presidential term, pledging to continue Magsaysay's pro-American foreign policy.

Red U-Boat Fleet Cited By Admiral

Briton Says NATO Nations Should Use U. S. Army's Set-up

By STANLEY JOHNSON

PARIS (AP)—NATO's naval commander, U. S. Adm. Jerauld Wright, today urged that U. S. nuclear secrecy be modified to help equip all NATO navies with atomic submarines.

The admiral told the Atlantic Alliance's Advisory Assembly arming the navies with A-subs should be given top priority.

He added that NATO countries could equip themselves without receiving U. S.-built subs if Congress would amend the McMahon Act to make more nuclear know-how available.

Cites Huge Red Fleet

Wright told a closed session of the Assembly that the Soviet Union's submarine fleet is three times as big as that of the United States and Allies combined.

The Russians are known to have about 500 submarines and the number is increasing by 75 to 100 a year.

The mission of allied submarines now is to try to knock out Soviet subs if there is a war, Wright said.

The admiral was the last of NATO's top military men to brief 170 congressmen and Parliament members from the 15 NATO countries.

George Brown, defense expert in the British Labor party's "Shadow Cabinet," told the Assembly that NATO members should remodel their armies in the pentomic structure used by the United States.

He said the new organization being adopted by the Americans "is based on a proper appreciation of the way to deal with the threat of atomic attack without dispersing so far as to weaken the power to resist on the ground."

The U. S. Army has announced that all its divisions will be organized along the new lines by the end of this winter. The pentomic division has five self-sustaining units instead of the old regiments, and is about a fourth smaller than the former division.

U. S. Sen. Green (D-RI) chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, told an American Club luncheon that all the Western powers could pay more for defense and probably would have to.

Points To "Erosion"

Now on a tour of all 15 NATO countries, the Senate's 90-year-old dean said he was "disturbed by what seems to me to be an incipient erosion of the NATO military effort."

"My own country and most of the other NATO countries I have visited are prosperous," Green

Probers Told Of Gang Boss 'Muscling In'

WASHINGTON (AP)— Two garbage collector brothers testified today gangsters moved in on the Garbage Collectors Assn. in Nassau County, N.Y., in connection with negotiation of a union contract.

John and Anthony Montesano said the gangsters included associates of Albert Anastasia, reputed executioner for the kill-for-pay gang, Murder, Inc.

Alternately answering questions before the Senate Rackets Investigating Committee, the brothers said the gangster move began after they called in James Squillante for assistance in a contract negotiation session.

They said Squillante, described by Chairman McClellan (D-Ark) as a man who grabbed a "stranglehold" on garbage trade associations, moved swiftly after he was asked for advice in the fall of 1954.

John Montesano said he was on the negotiating committee but "the union had lawyers and I wasn't capable of dealing with lawyers."

He said he asked for advice from Freddie (Pasta) Fasula, sergeant at arms of the Intercounty Cartmen's Assn., and was introduced to Joe Feola, alias Joey Surprise, who suggested he talk with Squillante.

The committee said Fasula — whose nickname John Montesano said means "beans and macaroni"—has a criminal record including burglary, auto theft, larceny and other charges. Feola's record, committee staff members have testified, includes a charge of killing a New York policeman.

The brothers said that when Squillante came to their association meeting he "brought a lot of people with him." They said he put "this fellow and that fellow" into association offices and "the next thing you knew he had contro' of the organization."

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market dipped lower in fairly active trading early today.

Milder, Wet Weather Due

BALTIMORE (AP)—Five-day forecast: Occasional rain Thursday and again about Monday. Milder through Friday. Cooler over the weekend. Temperatures will average two to five degrees above normal. Precipitation will total one-half to one inch. Normal highs are in the 50s. Lows range from the upper 20s in extreme Western Maryland to the upper 30s in eastern sections.

Hebert Cites GM s Action Guilty Plea

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—Rep. F. Edward Hebert (D-La) says an offer by General Motors to repay the Air Force more than half of $17,459,200 constitutes a plea of guilty to misrepresentation and excess profits.

Hebert, chairman of the House Armed Service subcommittee for special investigations, said yesterday a large part of the $9,701,458 offer was conditional. It depended on a refusal by the Justice Department to press charges of fraud against the huge automobile firm.

The contract involved the construction of 599 F84F jet fighter planes by the company's Buick-Oldsmobile-Pontiac divisions.

General Motors made a profit of 11.6 per cent before taxes, Hebert said. He termed two million dollars of the profit overpricing by the corporation.

Hebert released two letters by John F. Gordon, vice president of General Motors. Both were sent to Maj. Gen. William T. Thurman, deputy director of procurement and production for the Air Force.

Jet Bombers Span Pacific, Fly Non-Stop

MANILA (AP)—Three U.S. Air Force twin-jet B66 bombers swept into the Philippines today after nonstop flight from the U.S. West Coast.

The Air Force said the flight from George Air Force Base, Calif., made in just over 17 hours, was part of an operation to show it can deliver a tactical striking force to help nip brush-fire wars anywhere in the world.

A spokesman said the 8,000-mile nonstop trip was a record for B66s, which can carry atomic weapons. The flight refueled in the air off Hawaii.

A fourth plane in the flight stopped at Wake Island and was due tomorrow.

The B66s are the vanguard of 47 jet fighter and bombers being moved from various U.S. bases to Pacific points in an operation called "Mobile Zebra."

Thirty-one planes are coming to the Philippines and 16 others will stop at Guam.

The flight was led by Col. R. J. Clizbe, 42, of Centralia, Wash., who now lives with his wife and two children at Eglin, Fla.

The average speed was about 530 miles an hour, Clizbe said. The three-man light bomber is rated in the 600-700 mile an hour class.

Czech Red President Heart Victim At 72

VIENNA (AP)—Antonin Zapotocky, one of the leaders in the Communist seizure of Czechoslovakia and its president since 1939, died early today in Prague after more than two years of heart trouble. Radio Prague announced the death. The veteran Communist would have been 73 next month.

He had been in poor health since suffering a severe heart attack in August 1955. Nine days ago he had another heart attack and the Prague Sanatorium said last night his condition has deteriorated.

Zapotocky was one of the founders of the Communist party in Czechoslovakia. That was in 1921, a year after a meeting in Russia with Lenin which began a lasting loyalty to the Soviet Union.

Conservative in his communism, Zapotocky did not go along with the policy changes of Soviet Premier Georgi Malenkov after Stalin died in 1953. Under his influence as president, Czechoslovakia retained the memory and symbolism of Stalinism after Nikita Khrushchev began to chip away at them in Russia.

Despite some arrests of youths, Czechoslovakia under Zapotocky remained quiet when Poland on one side and Hungary on the other were inflamed last fall with anti-Soviet feeling.

In Vienna, Antonin Novotny, first secretary of the Czechoslovak Communist party, and Jaromir Dolansky, deputy premier and a member of the party Politburo, were considered favorites to succeed Zapotocky. Prime Minister Vilem Siroky is a Slovak, and the presidency so far has not gone to that minority group.

'Confidential' To Eliminate Expose Yarns

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Confidential and Whisper magazines have decided to retire from the "expose" field. And, in a development apparently related to this decision, they have won dismissal of one of the conspiracy charges brought against them.

The magazines announced in newspaper ads yesterday that they will "eliminate expose stories on the private lives of celebrities," beginning with the March, 1958, issue of Confidential, and the April, 1958, issue of Whisper.

The ads said the magazines "never felt that such stories violated any laws," but nevertheless agreed on the format change with the state attorney general and county district attorney.

"We are confident," the magazines said, "that our millions of readers will find the new format interesting and exciting."

Kasper Awaits Court Ruling On New Trial Plea

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — Arguments for a new contempt of court trial were planned today for Northern segregationist John Kasper and six east Tennesseans in U.S. District Court here.

Kasper and six residents of the nearby Clinton, Tenn., area were convicted by an all-white jury last July of criminal contempt in violating Judge Robert L. Taylor's injunction against interfering with desegregation at Clinton High School.

Taylor ordered the defendants to be present for the oral arguments today.

W. Va. Flu Cases Take Sharp Drop

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (AP)—The State Health Department has reported a sharp drop in influenza-like cases throughout West Virginia but warned that the epidemic has yet to reach its peak in the southern section.

The department said 19,021 influenza-like cases were listed for the week ending last Saturday or 15,516 less than the previous week figure of 34,537.

Benny's Fiddling Raises $980,700 For Israel Bonds

TORONTO (AP)—Jack Benny fiddled for a $980,700 audience last night.

Patrons were required to buy at least $300 worth of State of Israel bonds to hear the comedian, whose violin clowning was accompanied by the Toronto Symphony Orchestra. Mimi Benzell, former Metropolitan Opera soprano, also was featured.

The highest single-seat contribution was $25,000.

Benny said the 2,700 persons who packed into Massey Hall paid "the largest gross of any single concert in history."

Food Prices Rise Sharply

NEW YORK (AP) — Nearly half of the foods included in Dun & Bradstreet's wholesale food index increased in price this week, resulting in the biggest index jump since May 1956.

At $6.29 the index compared with $6.18 last week and was 4.7 per cent higher than the $6.01 figure in the similar week last year. The rise was the fourth in as many weeks and left the index at its highest point since the week of Sept. 10.

Fifteen of the 31 foods in general use included in the index were higher—flour, wheat, corn, rye, hams, bellies, coffee, cottonseed oil, cocoa, peanuts, eggs, potatoes, steers, hogs and lambs.

NOTICE

Effective Monday, November 18, the price of The Cumberland Evening Times will be increased from 6 to 7 cents per copy and from 36 to 42 cents per week delivered to your home.

Effective Sunday, November 17, the price of The Cumberland Sunday Times will be increased from 10 to 15 cents per copy.

These changes in price are necessitated by great increases in cost of all items involved in the production of these newspapers. They represent the first change in price to readers since March 1953.

We regret the necessity of this change, but it is no longer possible to absorb these increased production costs without a price adjustment to our readers.

Oldest Veteran To Celebrate 115th Birthday, Loves Music

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — Music-loving Walter Williams, the oldest living Civil War veteran, celebrates his 115th birthday tomorrow. A Western band will play some of his favorite tunes.

The white-haired, tobacco-chewing Confederate veteran is three years older than John Salling of Slant, Va., the only other living Civil War veteran.

Williams' daughter Mrs. Willie Mae Bowles said a small party with the band, cake and some punch was planned. Friends were expected to drop by all day but no big celebration was planned.

Williams has always loved music. Bed-ridden for the past six months, he keeps a radio near his bed and turns it on loud when listening to music.

He rode in an ambulance during the Veterans Day parade Monday and said he enjoyed listening to the bands and hearing the crowds.

The party will be marred for Williams by the absence of his wife, who died Nov. 2 at the age of 84 from a heart ailment. The couple had been married 64 years. Williams does not know she is dead.

Mrs. Bowles has postponed telling her father of his wife's death until after his birthday because of the effect the news might have.

Adlai Likely To Accompany Ike

Hagerty Admits Error On Reply To Paris Parley Bid

WASHINGTON (AP) — Adlai Stevenson held out the possibility today he may accompany President Eisenhower to a Paris meeting next month designed to increase Allied cooperation.

From a haze of confusion, the role of the Democrat whom Eisenhower twice defeated for the presidency emerged as that of adviser—and possibly a participant—in proposals Eisenhower and Secretary of State Dulles will present to a North Atlantic Treaty meeting of heads of state in Paris Dec. 16.

An error by James C. Hagerty, White House press secretary, brought on the uncertainty which both Hagerty and Stevenson later sought to clarify.

Stevenson said he had informed Dulles a week ago that "while I could not undertake to formulate the President's policies, I would gladly review and discuss our government's proposals before they were put into final shape."

Hagerty said Stevenson "will be kept informed of the developing program and will, we hope, discuss the items in the program with the administration before they are finalized."

In a bid for bipartisan support, Stevenson reportedly had been offered at first a key position in both formulating and presenting United States proposals to strengthen NATO against Russia's growing missile strength.

Even in the more limited advisory role, officials let it be known that Stevenson could go with Eisenhower and Dulles to Paris if he chose to.

In New York last night, he said he would be willing to attend the Paris meeting. But whether he would go, he said, would depend on the shape of the U. S. proposals. He indicated one condition might be an increase in foreign aid which would require a relaxation of the 275-billion-dollar limit on the federal debt.

By implication he left himself free to criticize any of the administration's proposals with which he disagrees.

Daniel Would Close Schools If Troop Control Threatened

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP)—The Texas Legislature meets today to act on Gov. Price Daniel's recommendation for a law to close public schools threatened with control by state or federal troops.

The Legislature's second special session came on the heels of a first which in 30 days gave the governor substantially all that he had asked on lobby and influence control laws, a water planning measure, and a commission to study crime increase and law enforcement.

The troop-school bill suggested by Daniel is similar to a Florida law. It would provide that when violence or danger of violence "cannot be prevented except by resort to military force or occupation of a public school" the local board may close it.

It also provides that in the event National Guard or other troops are used on federal authority on school property or nearby to keep order, the board shall close the school until the troops are withdrawn.

The emergency clause of the bill declares that public education under martial law or military occupation is "contrary to the concepts of freedom and democracy" and that it would be harmful to children to attend public schools under the force and surveillance of military troops.

LeMay Plans To Attempt Speed Record On Return

By VERN HAUGLAND

ABOARD KC135 (AP)—Gen. Curtis E. LeMay lifted his record-setting KC135 Jet Stratotanker off Buenos Aires' Ezeiza Field early today in quest of a possible inter-American jet speed record.

The Air Force vice chief of staff and 22 other persons left Buenos Aires about 4:28 a. m., EST.

A Buenos Aires-Washington speed record appeared to be in the making.

Maintenance crews worked nearly through the night preparing the four-jet tanker for the takeoff.

LeMay charted a nearly direct course for the approximately 5,000 miles to Washington on his way home from a quick visit to Argentina's National Aviation Week and a call on Provisional President Pedro Aramburu.

Air Force officers estimated that the trip back would take about 11 hours. LeMay flew south yesterday from Westover Air Force Base, Mass., in 13 hours, 2 minutes, 51 seconds.

On the trip down the Air Force vice chief of staff skirted Brazil, flying over the Atlantic to add about 600 miles to the trip. It set a distance record of 6,325 miles for an officially recorded nonstop, nonrefueled jet flight.

The trip south at an average speed of 485 miles an hour did not set an official speed record, however, because the International Aeronautical Federation recognizes only speed tests from one national capital to another.

LeMay's destination today was Andrews Air Force Base near Washington. Charles Logsdon, executive secretary of the National Aeronautical Assn., who judged the southbound flight for distance, was returning with LeMay to certify any speed record.

NLRB Finds "Hot Cargo" Pacts Illegal

WASHINGTON (AP)—The National Labor Relations Board has ruled that "hot cargo" contracts between unions and common carriers violate the Taft-Hartley law.

The question of the validity of such agreements has been before the board previously, but yesterday's 3-2 decision marked the first time the NLRB has declared them unlawful. The board ruled the contracts valid and enforceable in 1949.

A hot cargo clause generally provides that employes may refuse to handle goods which the union brands as "unfair."

The ruling yesterday concerned Teamsters Union Local 728 in Atlanta, Ga. The board found that the local violated Taft-Hartley's ban on secondary boycotts by telling its members they could refuse to handle shipments from the Genuine Parts Co. of Atlanta.

NLRB Chairman Boyd Leedom and board member Joseph A. Jenkins said the board should adopt a rule that a union's making of a hot cargo contract constitutes in itself evidence of union "inducement or encouragement" of secondary boycott activity.

Other board members took a more restricted view.

Member Stephen S. Bean agreed in finding a violation. However, he based his stand on a 1955 board ruling that hot cargo clauses are valid but may not be enforced by union appeals to employes.

The fifth board member, Abe Murdock, dissented. Referring to the Leedom-Jenkins opinion, Murdock said, "Never before has any member of this board or of any court adopted so extreme a view."

Rain General In East Area

Wet and fairly mild weather was the outlook for broad areas of the country today.

Rain continued to drench the far northwestern part of the country from northern California northward into Washington. Showers, with snow at higher elevations, sprinkled the northern Plateau and in the Rockies. Snow falls in some areas measured about an inch.

Southerly winds carried moist air from the Gulf of Mexico northward through the Mississippi Valley and adjacent areas. Rain fell in sections as far north as southern Minnesota and Wisconsin.

Veterans of U. S. wars numbered about 19,000,000 in 1950, or 40 per cent of the adult male population of the United States.

Subway Revenue Drops, Officials Blame Flu

NEW YORK (AP) — The Transit Authority reported a drop of 7,984,950 subway and bus passengers and $1,185,466 in revenues last month compared with the preceding October.

Joseph E. O'Grady, Transit Authority commissioner, said yesterday a survey showed the loss in riders was caused by flu.

Police Lack Clues In Hunt For West Coast Tot Slayer

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Sheriff's deputies acknowledged today that they have no definite clues to the whereabouts of an armed reform school boy sought in the slaying of 22-month-old Laura Helen Wetzel.

But they said they were leaving "no stone unturned" in the hunt for elusive John Lawrence (Larry) Miller, 15, who ran away from his parents Sunday as they were taking him back to the Fred C. Nelles School for juvenile delinquents at nearby Whittier. He had been home on a pass.

Sheriff Eugene W. Biscailuz said the Miller boy was linked to the Monday afternoon killing by a palm print found at the murder scene in a Rolling Hills Estates home. The beach community is about 20 miles from downtown Los Angeles.

Authorities quoted the teenager's father Harold Miller of Long Beach as saying: "I hope they catch my boy before he hurts anyone else."

Coroner Theodore J. Curphey said an autopsy showed no evidence that Laura had been sexually assaulted. He said there was hemorrhage in the lungs, common in asphyxiation. The exact cause of death will be determined by laboratory studies, Dr. Curphey said.

The blue-eyed, blonde daughter of Air Force Capt. and Mrs. Charles W. Wetzel was found dead Monday in the home of neighbors, who were away. Her nude body, badly bruised, lay in a tangle of blankets.

Laura disappeared while playing. Her parents were looking for her when a youth was seen at the murder scene. He disappeared into the hills after menacing neighbors who spotted him. They said he was armed with a pistol and a large knife.

Sheriff Biscailuz said the youth had been arrested twice for burglary and was serving a sentence for auto theft.

ed people to make careers of military service."

Hinting at tonight's subject, Mr. Eisenhower said last week:

"According to my scientific friends, one of our greatest and most glaring deficiencies is the failure of us in this country to give high enough priority to scientific education and to the place of science in our national life."

The President presided over one of the largest National Security Council sessions ever held yesterday to grapple with the problem of stretching the 1958 budget to cover additional millions and perhaps billions for missiles. A total of 62 administration officials sat in on the extraordinary meeting.

Mr. Eisenhower planned to fly directly back to Washington tonight after his speech, scheduled for 10:30 p. m. EST.

U. S. Manned Space Ship Studied, Still Far Away

WASHINGTON (AP)—An Air Force general says the United States already is doing some preliminary thinking about a manned space ship—although such a project still is a long way off.

Brig. Gen. H. F. Gregory, commander of the Air Force Office of Scientific Research, said in a speech yesterday: "Although it may be somewhat early to be building manned space ships, it is not too early to be thinking about exploratory research in this area.

"In fact we have been doing it for some time."

Gregory described the Air Force project Fireside, a recent series of rocket tests, as "one of many high-altitude scientific research efforts that will be required . . . for the successful conquest of space."

The Air Force has said previously that six rockets were fired in the Farside tests in the Pacific and there have been unofficial reports that the sixth shot went more than 4,000 miles into the sky.

Gregory said there was no foundation for reports that Farside personnel had been pressured to speed up the project as a result of Russia's first satellite launching Oct. 4.

It was that event which touched off a general clamor for accelerating the U.S. missile and satellite programs. The second Soviet satellite, one carrying a dog was hung in space Nov. 3.

Former President Harry Truman, in Washington to attend a luncheon in his honor, told newsmen: "We had a missile program before I left the White House — it was broken up after I left."

He said the program was devoted primarily to research from 1946-51, and that it was headed by K. T. Keller, former Chrysler Corp. president who later left government service.

"Somebody ought to institute a specific policy and see that it is carried out," he said.

But about the same time, Sen. Bennett (R-Utah) issued a statement saying the Truman administration must be blamed "for our lag behind the Russians in the ballistic missile field. . .

Moscow reported last night that Sputnik II would complete its 138th orbit of the earth at 6 a.m. today, but it gave no information on what had happened to the dog riding in the satellite.

Tass news agency also said that by this morning, Sputnik I would have circled the earth 591 times, and that its carrier rocket would have made 595 revolutions.

Truman Lauds Hoover's Stand

NEW YORK (AP)—Former President Harry S. Truman today described as a "sensible statement" former President Hoover's saying that Americans should take a bird's eye rather than a worm's eye view of the missile situation.

"I believe the idea he (Hoover) has in mind is to review our position up, down and crossways," Truman said. "I hope we do that."

Truman made the comment as he walked from the Hotel Carlyle to the Park avenue home of his son-in-law, Clifton Daniel, for breakfast.

said. "Defense expenditures are high, but they could rise even higher without working an undue hardship. Certainly there is no valid excuse for reducing them at this time."

He conceded that there is a limit to the defense force the West can maintain "but what I want to emphasize is that this limitation has by no means yet been reached."

Knowland Hits Moves To Boost Missiles' Fund

CHICAGO (AP) — Sen. Knowland (R-Calif) says he is against trying to outstrip Russia's scientific achievements by putting new billions of dollars into missile projects, "as some have suggested."

The Senate minority leader told a meeting of the Chicago Better Business Bureau last night that the challenge facing the nation "is to look over the budget and see if we can do something to keep the nation continuing on a balanced budget."

The Defense Department, in adjusting its spending, Knowland added, should "concentrate on muscle and cut out the fat."

He said the last Congress appropriated 34 billion dollars for military spending and that, as of July 1, the department already had an additional 36 billion in unspent funds, making a total of 70 billion available for defense spending without additional appropriations."

Anne Arundel School Needs Figured High

ANNAPOLIS (AP)—The president of the Anne Arundel County School Board says an estimated 35 million dollars will be needed during the next five years to put the county ahead of its classroom shortage.

Dr. Richard D. Weigle said officials will have to decide whether to try to raise the money or adopt more half-day sessions for students.

Weigle's statement came on the heels of announcement yesterday by Dr. David S. Jenkins, school superintendent, that Annapolis Junior High and Brooklyn Park Junior-Senior High probably will be put on split schedules next year because of crowded conditions.

Half-time schedules already are in effect at Glen Burnie schools and at George Fox Junior High in Annapolis. The county is short 88 elementary classrooms and 98 secondary classrooms, with an enrollment jump of 2,500 expected next year.

Fire Captain Finds Aid So Near Yet So Far

RICHMOND, Ind. (AP) — Fire Capt. Fred Klotz had a fire company with him while returning from a fire but he didn't get any help when his car began to smoke.

The truck ahead of him couldn't hear his calls for aid.

He telephoned headquarters and the truck returned to put out an ignition fire in the chief's car.

Turkey Can't Afford To Buy Coffee Supply

ISTANBUL—(INS)—There's not a drop of Turkish coffee anywhere in Turkey these days, and tourists who come in hungering for the real brew have to drink tea instead.

So do the Turks, and for them the whole subject of coffee is embarrassing. They just can't afford to buy any.

This coffee-loving nation, which considers coffee a social necessity rather than a beverage, is in the position of a housewife with a slim budget.

The Turks have just so much foreign buying power to spend, and they're spending it on machinery, hospital supplies and other priority equipment. That leaves no cash for coffee, and Brazil, the world's top coffee-seller, won't give credit.

Result: the biggest case of coffee jitters ever shared by 24,000,000 citizens.

Prince Georges Board Votes For Junior College

UPPER MARLBORO, Md. (AP)—The Prince Georges County commissioners voted 4-1 yesterday to establish next fall a county junior college.

Commissioner Lansdale G. Clagett, the dissenter, maintained elementary and secondary school problems should be solved before the junior college project was undertaken.

Today's decision authorized a supplemental appropriation of $30,000 for the first year of operation of the college. An additional $60,000 will come from the state and from tuition fees.

Baltimore Advertising Tax Hearing Scheduled

BALTIMORE (AP)—The pros and cons on Baltimore's proposed taxes on advertising will be put on the line at a televised public hearing today.

Mayor Thomas D'Alesandro's Democratic administration has proposed a 7½ per cent sales tax on advertising and a 2 per cent gross receipts levy on advertising revenue to help balance next year's budget.

The two taxes would yield an estimated $4,200,000 and provide a big chunk of the money sought to prevent too high an increase in the property tax to balance the proposed record 232 million dollar budget.

Six members of the 21-man City Council already have announced their opposition to the proposals, including Councilman Solomon Liss, a member of the administration team.

Liss said yesterday he opposes the taxes because they "single out one segment of the community taxes it." He said the tax eventually will be passed on to the customer and "will tend to drive business to the counties."

The committee fighting the taxes said it had received close to 300 protests from advertisers, advertising agencies and manufacturers outside Maryland. Many threaten to take advertising out of Baltimore should the tax go through.

On the eve of the hearing yesterday, the Associated Builders and Contractors of Maryland criticized the tax as a "blight business tax of the worst sort." The Baltimore Association of Commerce labeled it "hastily conceived taxation . . . bound to do violence to the basic economy of the city."

Crow quills were used to write fine lines before the introduction of steel pens.

New Floor Care Ends Waxing

One of the difficult jobs of housekeeping is to wax linoleum and asphalt tile floors. Now, thanks to Glaxo, it's no longer necessary to wax and scrub; just apply Glaxo about twice a year. It maintains a high lustre, non slip coating that seals out dirt. Glaxo dries in one hour and is water clear. It's cheaper than wax in the long run, besides saving a terrific amount of work, plus truly a beautiful floor.

To Test Grasses On Two Allegany Farms

Tests will be tried on two Allegany County farms next season in an effort to determine what grasses and legumes would be adaptable to "Ashby shale soil," according to Martin Gordon, acting work unit conservationist of the Soil Conservation Service.

The trial plantings will be made on the farms of Marshall Mann of Little Orleans and Lawrence Mallery of near Oldtown.

Political Omen?

THE DEMOCRATIC crowing over Gov. Robert B. Meyner's 200,000-vote victory in the New Jersey governorship race isn't the hollow croaking of politicians trying to make something out of very little. The professionals expected Meyner's triumph. Hence the mere fact of victory could not justify private rejoicing in high Democratic councils, whatever the party criers might say for public consumption. It was the size and character of the victory, plus the unexpected swing of the New Jersey legislature's lower house to Democratic control, that flushed the winners with confidence even when no one was looking. When Meyner won by 153,000 four years ago, it was generally regarded as something of a fluke. Scandals hurt the GOP badly. The Republicans won by a bare 5,000 in their Bergen County stronghold and lost two other usually Republican counties, Essex (Newark) and Union, by margins close to 15,000.

BUT THIS TIME, with no comparable scandal, the GOP nominee, Malcolm S. Forbes, could lift the Bergen County margin only to 14,000. An edge of 40,000 to 60,000 is rated normal. And Meyner won Essex by 35,000 and Union by nearly 20,000. He also narrowly snared another GOP baliwick, Monmouth County. On top of this, the New Jersey Assembly, which had been Republican for 20 years and was that by a 40-20 margin until this election, turned and went 42 to 18 Democratic. The GOP held the Senate, 13 to 8, though dropping one seat. The analysts looking at these results are bound to conclude that while they are no proof of a national trend, they do suggest one may be in the making.

MEYNER IS of course immensely popular. He successfully won the support of Independents, heavily represented in Jersey, and of leading businessmen. He developed no substantial enemies and persuaded the voters he has been a good governor. No issues of consequence rose to plague him. Not even the civil rights question, which after Little Rock might have made impact on New Jersey's 120,000 registered Negro voters, stirred any uprising. Initial study indicate virtually no turn among Negroes toward the Republicans. Inevitably the outcome boosts Meyner as a Democratic presidential prospect in 1960. But when all discount is made for the governor's obviously very substantial popularity, the feeling is likely to persist that this result may be a straw in the national winds.

Houston Is Booming

HOUSTON, Tex., has just taken a long leap forward in population. The state supreme court has upheld the validity of the annexation of 187 square miles and 103,000 new citizens. This brings Houston's population up to an estimated 872,000. This is one of the largest single bites taken by a city since the turn of the century, when New York City swallowed up Brooklyn. That was done by virtue of a law that permitted the vote in a combined region to count for or against annexation, regardless of how the individual units voted. Brooklyn's vote to stay independent was lost in New York's large affirmative vote of "Aye." Houston, now 14th among our cities, may pass Pittsburgh and Milwaukee by its recent enlargement. In any case, Houston is getting up among our very largest cities.

Evil Extremes Meet

EXTREME rightists and leftists are much alike. To the many resemblances betwen Communists and Nazis, add anti-Semitism. Such a tendency, manifested at intervals in Russia, has now become a full-scale campaign of discrimination against the Jews. This is the finding of the American Jewish Committee. Therein lies another resemblance between Lenin, Stalin and their successors on the one hand, and the old czardom on the other. Under the czars Russia was notorius for its pogroms or popular massacres of Jews, encouraged by the government. The program of expansion which made almost all eastern Europe a Russian territory and is now seeking to spread over Asia continues a czarist policy. And now Khrushchev and his fellows, despite their preachments of the brotherhood of man, are busily trying to wipe out the culture of the Jews.

Reds Rate Rise To Power Above Freedom

WASHINGTON—A couple of incidents come back about Soviet Russia in the midst of the Second World War that seem apropos now.

They were related by the late Wendell L. Willkie when he got back from his morale-boosting trip to our allies all over the world, a mission approved by President Roosevelt who had defeated Mr. Willkie for President in the 1940 election.

One incident involved the head of the great National Library in Moscow which Mr. Willkie visited during his stay in Russia.

The library director led the American tourist to a balcony outside of the library building so the two could talk without possibility of being snooped upon or picked up in recording devices.

Mr. Willkie inquired of the Russian how he could live in such conditions where he was, in effect, under constant surveillance, and was surprised to discover that this was secondary to a compensating pride in something else.

The Russian told Mr. Willkie that he was the first person from peasant stock who ever had been head of the great National Library.

IDENTICAL was another incident during the American's visit to the front where Russian armies were then in a death grip with Nazi armies. There he talked with a 38-year-old lieutenant general in charge of one sector of the front. Proudly the officer told Mr. Willkie that he was the first peasant who ever had such a high rank in the Russian army.

This pride in new-found opportunities and the emphasis on material things impressed the American good-will ambassador who compared it to our similar emphasis during our expanding era of the 1880's, but in the case of the Russians, unlike ourselves, it completely subordinated interest in individual liberty and freedom of speech. That is understandable, of course, since there had been little liberty or freedom of speech among the peasants and lower classes during the time of the Czars.

RUSSIA still is in this surging era, yet without the freedoms that Wendell Willkie thought they might acquire in time. They are still under the compelling drive of the personal pride he saw 15 years ago, however, with great stress on material accomplishments to which we are waking up again in the swirling sputniks and missile development and scientific advances which have left us behind, and which the Soviets quite naturally made the centerpiece in the 40th anniversary celebration of the Revolution.

We cherish our freedoms, which we intend to keep; but unless we get up and about and prove that we can do as well as Russia, we won't make a very good example before the world. Nor can we nourish a lot of nonsensical notions about freedom that include reluctance to use our Federal government, which belongs to all of us, and bury ourselves and our initiative in something called "state rights."

AN EXAMPLE is education, in which Russia is making her greatest strides. While she is literally performing miracles in expanding her 10-year primary-secondary school system so that its enrollment now is 30 million compared with 11.5 million 30 years ago; we have been arguing, fussing and fuming about whether it is all right for the Federal government to use tax money provided by all of us to build sorely needed school houses.

One of the foremost conservatives of this era thought so—the late Sen. Robert A. Taft of Ohio. Ten years ago, back in 1947, he sponsored and got through the Senate a bill authorizing $300 millions a year for education—not only for buildings but for teacher pay, or whatever else the states needed it for.

State control of distribution of funds which was imposed avoided any Federal interference in education. It was defeated, however, in the House as bills limited only to construction of schools have been killed in the House in the last two sessions of Congress, with both parties sharing the blame.

HOW RUSSIA is forging ahead in education is revealed in a 226-page volume published today by the U. S. Office of Education, representing two years of work, an eye-opener which should give us pause.

In a foreword emphasizing how much Russia is doing, especially in science and technology, U. S. Commissioner of Education Lawrence G. Derthick cautions against any change in our basic concepts of free education, which he says are unsurpassed, because of the Russian example. Then he adds:

"Rather, it should challenge every American to re-examine the extent to which we as a people support our democratic system of education. It should, in fact, challenge Americans to take new interest in meeting the needs of our schools, colleges and universities as they serve the purpose of our society: freedom, peace, and the fullest development of the individual."

It should indeed challenge us, and it should, so far as this reporter sees it, dispel spurious ideas about "state rights" in education which have killed bills to provide for our schools out of our common Federal treasury.

Especially in this era when high school boys can drive an automobile in a day across several of those imaginary lines we designate as state boundaries, and see school boys just like themselves, citizens of the same country, for all of whom we should provide out of our common treasury for a good education, without regard for imaginary lines drawn on a map.

Negro Vote Switch Would Mean Little

WASHINGTON—(NEA)—Rival claims by Republicans and Democrats on the political effects of President Eisenhower's sending Federal troops to Little Rock just about cancel each other out.

The result is a new political appraisal that there will be little or no short-range gain for either party in the 1958 congressional elections, on the civil rights issue.

For presidential elections in 1960, 1964 and beyond, the answer could be something else that can't be predicted now.

A few Republican leaders are ready to admit that their chances of holding their gains in the South are gone for next year. In this session of Congress, the Republicans have 15 congressmen from 10 southern and border states.

They may hold their two seats in traditionally Republican east Tennessee. They think they might hang on to one or both of the two seats they hold in Kentucky, one or two of the three they hold in Maryland, and the one they hold in Delaware. These are border states which over the years have shown gradual but steady increase in GOP strength.

OTHERWISE, any strength which the Republicans can show in the South will depend entirely on the strength of individual candidates. Some of them may have to run as independents and convince voters they do not endorse the GOP civil rights program.

To make up for the loss of from seven to 10 House seats in the South, the Republicans will have to win that many more in the North. It is doubtful if they can do that on the civil rights issue. The GOP will have to win 20 more seats in Congress than they now hold, to control the House.

On the Senate races, a new survey has just been made by National Committee for an Effective Congress. This is an independent political action committee supporting liberals.

It indicates the Negro vote could be the deciding factor in only a few northern states where there are close races.

In 1952, nine senators who are running for re-election in 1958 won their seats by 51 or 52 per cent majorities. Six were Republicans—Goldwater of Arizona, Williams of Delaware, Jenner of Indiana, Potter of Michigan, Malone of Nevada, Barrett of Wyoming. Three were Democrats—Kennedy of Massachusetts, Mansfield of Montana and Chavez of New Mexico.

ARIZONA, Nevada, Wyoming, Montana and New Mexico have small Negro votes. So any shift of these votes from Democratic to Republican would have no effect on the outcome.

In Indiana, Delaware and Michigan, any shift of the Negro vote from Democratic to Republican would help the incumbent Republican senators. In Massachusetts, any shift of Negro voters from Democratic to Republican would make Senator Kennedy's re-election more difficult. But there aren't enough Negro voters in Massachusetts to swing the election.

Nationally, it is generally conceded that about 65 to 70 per cent of the Negro vote was Democratic during the Roosevelt and Truman administration. The Republicans claim their 30 to 35 per cent of the Negro vote came from the better educated Negroes who understood the civil rights issue.

REPUBLICANS also claim that the Eisenhower ticket picked up another 10 per cent of the Negro vote in 1952 and 1956. This is attributed to the improved economic status of the Negroes more than it is to any political appeal of the GOP.

But as a result of passage of the new civil rights legislation and as a further result of what happened in Little Rock, conservative Republican strategists think they might pick up another 10 per cent of the Negro vote in 1958. This is admittedly not enough to do the GOP much good nationally.

For 1964 and beyond, Republican spokesmen think that their humane stand on equal rights will begin to pay off for them politically. Or if the Democratic party splits up on the civil rights issue, the Republicans think they might benefit as early as 1960.

Glancing Sideways

NEW YORK—Either the psychic powers and persuasive strength of segments of the press are extraordinary or coincidence rides with amazing grace these days.

Once, during the summer, I made relatively idle mention of an ancient Otomi Indian who was hand-carving honest, true, primitive art on the side of his mountain 90 miles from Mexico City at Avandara.

Once, last week, I joshed around with the decline of flying saucers, egg-shaped mystery vehicles and other airborne objects from, if you believe the starry-eyed, outer space.

WHAT HAS happened in both cases is astonishing. It also happened in one day. First, a letter from Donn V. Kavanaugh, the Donn spelled the good Irish way. Mr. Kavanaugh lives in Fort Myers Beach, Florida, and with his family owns a shop dedicated to imports which include odd, amusing and singular Mexican art ware.

Set to itching by the piece on the primitive artist, Kavanaugh got into his station wagon, drove all the way to Ayandaro, tracked down the extant members of the now dead Otomi's family and forthwith bought up every object the 93-year-old man had carved and that wasn't nailed down.

Mr. Kavanaugh: "Since we have all but one of the remainder of these carvings in existence, except for the one you procured, of course, we will one day turn most of them back to the Mexican government for museum display in the country where they belong."

ALL BUT TWO, Mr. Kavanaugh. I don't know where the one you mean is, but the other one hangs in the Avandaro bedroom of Emilio Contreras, a young and brilliant engineer, as well as appreciator of Mexican art, to whom my bride and I gave it this summer as a wedding present.

Emilio had driven by these objects three and four times a day in a curiosity and junk shop in Valle de Bravo but they had made no impression on him. When we acquired two — one for him — he became excited and vowed he would go to the old man's but and acquire whatever remained. You must have got there firstest with the mostest.

Drop Emilio a line and ask him to watch out in Valle de Bravo, every family in which is known to him, for odd pieces now in local possession. Villagers in this town, which is mainly Otomi, must have five or six tiems of the work on their walls and without much regard for them or understanding of what important art they are. They sold for 25 pesos, which is $2 American, and I think 40 pesos, or a little more than $3 American, would get any of them.

THE SECOND arrival of oddments concerns the kidding about UFO's, and their scarcity these days. No sooner had this column been printed (and I begin to think the Venusian Daily Standard picked it up for free reprinting), than not one, but several Texans at isolated and varied spots not contiguous to each other reported a 200-foot long mystery air vehicle, egg-shaped, hunkered down on a major Texas highway, emitting flashing light and silencing the engines and dousing the headlights of any automobile coming too close.

Of five such reports to State and higway police officers, three could not possibly have been in contact or in cahoots with any of the others. In plain words: There were, out of five reports, three which had to be free of information or influence from the others. They were independent reports.

IN ADDITION two different sets of MP's from the armed services, out on separate patrols, reported the same mysterious visitor in areas distant from the automobile reports.

It boils down to the seeming fact that something long, ovaloid, given to flashing vari-colored lights, was over and surfaced on Texas all in one night across a considerable spread of miles.

Military police are not given to fanciful report and the citizens involved can reduce their experience to a simple thing: either such an object was seen and it neutralized the electrical systems of their individual cars or it was not seen and it did not stop their engines and lights.

THE AIR FORCE, with becoming frigidity of phrase customary to the procedure, concedes that it is investigating but that nothing discussable has been discovered. The Air Force always says just that, or suitable variants of it, and you can bet the last dollar you own that if it did discover anything tangible you, as the public, would not be told of it. The Air Force has a mighty power of concealing what it knows.

It would be appreciated by this column, which seems to have an idiotic talent for kidding at the wrong time, if Harry Provence, in Waco, Texas, would find time to jot down a few facts which may have escaped the news reports of the occasion.

If an ovaloid flying object, 200-feet long and containing instruments capable of neutralizing our automobiles, does exist (or did), it could save the little dog in the Russian rocket by stopping its orbital whizzing and extracting the poor little beast from its cage. And it would be only fair and of wry humor if it deposited the animal with us.

Keep a watch out for a strange little dog wandering Texas roads.

Mal Temps Say Wooly Bears

FOGGY BOTTOM, D. C. — I may be a city man now, but my rural friends remain loyal with continuing reports on items of importance, like wooly bears, and so it is that I still can present my annual weather forecast.

It's bad.

All signs point to one of the worst winters yet, with ice falling like sputniks, gales, blizzards, and frozen ear lobes. We won't even mention water pipes.

A number of my correspondents (one by long-distance phone from West Virginia) tell me that the wooly bears never before have acted so strange. They're not traveling north or south, either. They are running in circles. Mostly they don't even have stripes. They've got spots.

THE WOOLY bear long has been my principal weather forecaster. He is a kind of worm with a fur overcoat. The width of his stripes has been a sure sign of the kind of winter in store, except for the season of 1948-'49, and that was my fault. I got mixed up on what the wide stripes meant and all over it was warm. For a veteran weather man like myself, this was embarrassing.

This season I've not only consulted the worm, but my old friend, Ralph Sagendorph, editor of the Old Farmer's Almanac of Dublin, N. H. He says, "Ferly and surly—a real humdinger." I doubt if there's any such word as ferly, but it somehow does sound like icicles.

RALPH'S ancient, yellow-backed journal (established 166 years ago), starting with today, says: "Snow's on the ground. It's white all around. You now feel what you don't expect. Before cold boreas fly, or fall and die. Malignant rain or snow." That's just for the rest of November.

December, says Ralph, will be frigid with snow and then colder with more snow. As he puts it: "Time for burning shins and/or throat unquote."

January makes Ralph poetic in a morbid kind of way: "Wet snow and rain and sleet you'll meet. Poor sheep, the snow is 14 inches deep. Old Betty's rheumy joints to a bad storm points. Lady Auster warms things up in the old defroster. Call the hearse; the weather's worse."

THE EDITOR says that February will start warm but will become brutal on the 10th, with high winds to boot. The 12th will bring, blizzards, and, thereafter he says, it will be cold as charity.

There'll be a spring-like smell in March, he continues, but do not be fooled. "Think not I write in vain if it snows when I say rain," he says, and this is the only wishy-washy statement in the whole almanac. March is a tricky month and not even Editor Sangendorph can be held responsible for that.

This winter in general, he says, will be lowery. Where he finds such words I do not know, but they surely do sound like earmuffs.

THE ALMANAC man also includes some high-class reading matter, for use when a fellow is snowbound, and he prints some false teeth, patent medicine, and mail order eyeglass advertising.

This, he says, could have been a great deal worse, if he hadn't edited it, but as he points out, how can you publish an almanac without announcements for medicaments good for man and beast?

His advertisers offer pills to cure practically anything, while one of them from Joliet, Ill., has some nice tombstones, as low as $4.52 down.

Keep your overcoat buttoned.

Reporter's Notebook

NEW YORK—Marlon Brando, at 32 a figure of world recognition, is an actor in search of his life role.

He has been phenomenally successful. He says this about the impact of success on him:

"I have not been impressed so much by how I have changed as I have by other people's attitudes toward me."

Brandon is a full-lipped, short-haired, wide-hipped man who in a few short years has become perhaps the most acclaimed actor since John Barrymore, gifted with a talent as recognized among fellow actors as by the public.

In his latest film, he plays a young American jet flier who discovers, for him at least, that it is better to marry a Japanese girl he loves than to leave her behind.

He is a Southerner. The theme of the film is how love can rise above race prejudice.

THE PICTURE is based on the novel by James Michener. There are rumors around that Brando himself may make a million dollars from the film.

He says, aside from money, that Hollywood has done itself and America a disservice because too often it is potentially the best possible instrument of communication with foreign people—but has failed to communicate.

"It behooves us to do what we can to improve our relations with other people who, in a short time, we may find our lives interdependent with," he said.

After an overseas stint during which he made two pictures in Japan and toured Asia, Brando feels that people in those areas judge America by its movies and that the movies, by more realist dramas about world problems and prejudices, can improve mutual understanding and fare well at the box office.

BRANDO HIMSELF has made one kind of adjustment to fame.

"I have given up stating the pros and cons about myself," he said. "I'd just as soon let people come to their own conclusions—and let it go at that."

Brando today is a pleasant, wary, self-guarded, unsure, impulsive, multimillion-dollar property still exploring his moat.

Asked how success has affected his life, he said:

"It's a dangerous position to be in, from the standpoint of maintaining a sensible perspective on yourself in relation to other people.

"It grows like coral does. You don't see it until the tide of circumstances goes out and reveals a whole network.

"I think I have learned, as a result of being successful, how frighteningly important it is to most people to be regarded as successful. Not many people care about your growth, or lack of it, as a person.

"People hate you for no other reason than that you are successful, and they like you for no other reason."

Washington Scene

WASHINGTON—As if I were not sufficiently torn already trying to decide between Thor and Jupiter missiles, I've now got to decide between Ingrid Bergman and Sonali Das Gupta. Life on this planet is beginning to demand too many decisions, and I see only one avenue of escape. That is why I am volunteering to go to the moon.

Up there I wouldn't have to decide whether to recognize Red China and Arkansas; or whether Sec. of Agriculture Ezra Taft Benson should be succeeded by the other noted husbandman, Roberto Rossellini.

On the moon, I would not have to decide whether to offer a patient correction, or just let it go, when one of my family refers to Mme. Das Gupta as "Sonna-Lee," apparently under the impression that she is one of the Lees of Virginia. And I wouldn't have to take a stand on whether Miss Bergman got what was coming to her, or—as they say around Eric Johnston's movie czar office—is more to be pitted than censored.

I DON'T WANT to have to decide whether Vice President Nixon helped or hurt his presidential aspirations in "coaxing" Gov. Goodwin Knight to run for the U. S. Senate instead of again for the California governorship, and I don't want to decide which beer is the driest.

I don't want to be pulled this way and that, having to make up my mind whether Ex-Deputy Chief of Protocol Victor Purse should give his wife's car back to King Saud, or Mamie give her new fur coat back to the beavers.

Do you think I like being torn asunder the way I was after President Eisenhower's big address to the nation, trying to decide about the gadget exhibited by Ike on his telecast, and whether the cone contained explosives or frozen custard.

Then there were those wirephotos showing the weapons being paraded through Moscow's Red Square. I don't care to issue a statement that no matter how far ahead they are, we have better ones under production. Do you think I want people mistaking me for John Fooster Dulles?

You may not have suspected it from reading this column, but I have a scientific mind. I read scientific fiction whenever I can pickpocket a volume from one of our mentally retarded, and I will stay up till all hours if the late show has a movie about flying to other worlds.

THERE WAS ONE on the late, late, show a couple of months ago that I found especially informative. I do not know if you are aware of this, but there are cat women on the moon. They are quite shapely, and, except for a squint about the eyes, definitely personable.

Moreover they have no silly inhibitions, or reticence about making up to men, like some stuck-up women I could mention hereabouts. Of course, they have a custom of getting rid of a man after they weary of him, but I would not describe that as exactly a moon novelty.

These amenable ladies have a trick of appearing and disappearing suddenly. One will be standing right in front of a spellbound earthman, swaying at him with caudate witchery, and—presto!—she vanishes. But isn't that better than having a dame who's always there?

On more mature consideration, I am afraid the moon may not be the place to go to escape having to make decisions, and I think I will withdraw from my volunteer role.

If I went to the moon I might be racked with indecision trying to make up my mind whether to come back. I might like it there.

. . . Cumberland's Naval Reserve Surface Division 5-9 Wins U.S. Navy's James V. Forrestal Trophy

AWARDED ANNUALLY TO THE OUTSTANDING SURFACE DIVISION IN THE COUNTRY

Congratulations, officers and men of Naval Reserve Surface Division 5-9. Out of 308 large Surface Divisions in the United States, your outfit placed first in overall efficiency, with scoring points based on strength, attendance, annual training duties, and advancements.

Cumberland's unqualified congratulations go to the division's commanding officer, Commander Paul M. Arbogast and to the 300 officers and men who contributed their efforts to the total score. Also honors are bestowed upon Lieutenant Commander Gordon H. McCrea, Commanding Officer of the Naval and Marine Corps Reserve Training Center and to his staff of nine active duty stationkeepers who so willingly gave the necessary logistic and administrative support that made this victory possible.

Nice Going fellows! Cumberland is proud of our Naval Reserve

Achievement Program Held By LaVale Homemakers Club

The Achievement Day meeting of the LaVale Homemakers Club was held Monday at the LaVale fire hall in the form of a county fair. Two officers were elected at the business session with Mrs. Douglas Brown presiding.

Exhibits included baked goods, jellies and handiwork, such as quilts, afghans, hooked rugs, aprons, crocheted center pieces, and trays. Judges were Mrs. Julia Lewis, Mrs. D. A. Ferguson, Cresap Club; Mrs. C. R. Turkey, Mrs. Ralph Brotemarkle, North Cumberland Club, and Mrs. John S. Cook and Mrs. Thomas Turley, Valley Road Club.

Mrs. Cromwell Zembower was elected president and Mrs. Vernon Cost, treasurer.

Mrs. Smith led the flag salute and the collect was read by Mrs. Dudley Browne. The history of the Hymn of the month, "O Worship The King, All Glorious Above," was given by Mrs. Ella Maxwell. It was sung, directed by Mrs. Charles Long with Mrs. Browne accompanist.

Routine reports were given by Mrs. Ernest Screen and Mrs. Homer Carlton. Roll call, answered by 29 members, was "What new food product have you tried recently?"

Miss Mary Brengle reported that 33 books were read by members during the past month; Mrs. T. E. Williamson reported on the national homemakers' meeting in Columbus, Ohio, clothing and safety.

Mrs. John S. Cook showed pictures of her tour through the Canadian Rockies during the past summer, narrating events of her tour also.

Plans for a covered dish luncheon were made. It will be held at the December meeting, beginning at 12:30 p. m. Members will bring food for the welfare baskets and a jingle gift.

A tea concluded the meeting, in charge of Mrs. Bertha Simpson, nutrition chairman, and her committee. Mrs. J. Wesley Utterback presided at the tea table. Nine guests were also present.

D Of A Group Lists Banquet December 3

The Past Councilors Circle of Our Flag Council 100, Daughters of America, will hold its Christmas dinner and party at Moon's dining room, Tuesday, December 3, at 6 p. m., according to plans made at the meeting at the home of Mrs. LaVerne Morris, 207 Davidson Street. The election of officers was also held.

Mrs. Edna Swick and Mrs. Kathleen MacIntosh were co-hostesses. Mrs. Hilda Shrout presided and Mrs. Anna Twigg was in charge of the devotional exercises.

The new officers are Mrs. Edythe Emerick, president; Mrs. Effie Weber, vice president; Mrs. Sadie Durst, treasurer, and Mrs. Lucretia Emerick, secretary and Mrs. Lucinda White, assistant secretary.

Games featured the entertainment and prizes were won by Mrs. Helene Whetzel, Mrs. Anna Twigg, and Mrs. Avis Weber, Mrs. White, Mrs. Lillian Britt, and Mrs. Lucretia Emerick.

Others present were Mrs. Gertrude Wilkes, Mrs. Eva O'Neal and Mrs. Katherine Shepard, a guest.

Two Officers Elected At Meet East Side Club

Mrs. Lawrence Miller was elected president and Mrs. Stanley Morris, treasurer, of the East Side Homemakers Club at the recent meeting at Melvin Church. Mrs. Thomas Buser presided. Mrs. Clarence Stewart was chairman of the nominating committee.

It was decided that the club's Christmas party will be held December 10 at 6 p. m. at Nave's Dining room. Reservations are to be made with Mrs. Clarence Stewart by December 2, who is in charge of table decorations. It was voted to exchange jingles costing not over 75 cents or under 50 cents. The party is for members and friends.

The meeting opened with the Flag salute and one verse of "America." The collect was read in unison. The history of the hymn of the month, "O Worship the King, All Glorious Above," was read by Miss Pretzel, after which the club sang two verses, accompanied by Mrs. Buser at the piano. Roll call was answered to "What new food product have you tried recently?" Mrs. Lawrence Miller reported $44.11 in the treasury. Pennies for friendship were collected. Mrs. Buser read a letter from Miss Mary Wise announcing an officer's training meeting for December 3. It will be held from 10 a. m. until 3 p. m. for newly elected officers. Miss Wise thanked everyone for the cooperation in the County Achievement Day program. Mrs. Buser and Mrs. Clair Flora reported on the program and dinner.

Reporting on clothing, Mrs. Herman Curry showed illustrations stressing what and how to wear them. Mrs. Flora spoke on foods and reported that 956 quarts of food had been canned by members of the club.

Pictures Will Illustrate Talk

Moving pictures will be used to illustrate the talk on "Blood Vessel Surgery," to be given by Dr. Earl Paul at the meeting of the Alumnae Association of Sacred Heart Hospital, tomorrow at 8 p. m. All nurses of the city are welcome to attend. Mrs. Elizabeth Lovett will preside at a business session at 7:30 in the Bellevue Nurses' home.

Cumberland Chapter 914, Women of the Moose, will have initiations at the meeting tomorrow evening at the Moose Home. A social hour will follow the business session, with Miss Emma Jones, chairman. An executive board meeting will precede the chapter meeting.

Potomac Valley Lay Health Group Sets Yule Party Date

The Potomac Valley Lay Health Group met Thursday at the Cresaptown School Health Center with Mrs. James Armstrong, chairman, presiding. Mrs. Lester McGill gave the secretary's report and Mrs. Paul Glessner was welcomed as a new member.

Miss Margaret Morrissey, public health nurse, gave a complete report of the origin and growth of the Lay Health organization in this county. Reports were also given on the recent celebration of the tenth anniversary of the group.

The annual Christmas party will be a luncheon and jingle party in the Cresaptown Health Center on December 5. The committee in charge of arrangements consists of Mrs. Clement Myers, Mrs. Ferman Helmstetter, Mrs. McGill and Mrs. Martin Sharp.

Volunteer workers were assigned to assist Miss Morrissey as follows: Child hygiene conference on November 26, Mrs. Helmstetter, Mrs. John Niner, Mrs. Hubert Martz, Mrs. Thomas Beachy, Mrs. Olive Lewis and Mrs. R. C. Adams; school inspection, December 3, Mrs. Glessner.

"High Adventure" Has Spectacular Premiere

By JACK O'BRIAN

NEW YORK — (INS) — Lowell Thomas' new CBS-TV series "High Adventure," which last night took over Sgt. Bilko's time for a very spectacular premiere, was a dandy, full of fascinating, exotic places, people and indeed high adventure.

Lowell Thomas led a band of explorers through New Guinea armed with gun and camera among primitives whose notion of a square meal is an uncle.

At one point a "peace banquet" between two tribes was described —the 32 guests happily chawing away on something indescribable and lulled therein to the lovely notion all was well in their head-hunting world.

"After which," Thomas stated, "the hosts ate the guests."

It was this sort of absolutely unreal current history the CBS newscaster and movie producer (Cinerama) recounted in word and picture which added the extra out-of-this-civilized-world dimension needed to keep our rapt attention throughout.

We can't swear on a stack of old Lowell Thomas broadcasts that every eerie, ghoulish word was gospel ,but it sounded like the jungle McCoy, or the real MaCaw, and we took him at his scarey word.

He described and pictured dainty types who "kill one another, eat one another and cut one another's heads off whenever possible."

Thomas came home with unshrunken head still on shoulders and an engrossing tale to relate for TV and it was better than all the old National Geographics we peruse in our doctor's office.

It was, as he said, 10,000 miles away from Madison Avenue and 10,000 years away in time, and the primitive story unreeled, in color film, was engrossing every minute of the hour.

It was a very good, in fact fascinating television program and we're looking forward to the next one, in which Lowell Thomas will take a similar safari into the Arctic.

Tonight's Kraft Theatre (starring Bert Lahr) actually was performed yesterday afternoon in Brooklyn; the play this evening will unwind its plot via TV tape.

NBC couldn't keep the Brooklyn studio clear for both tonight's Kraft performance and rehearsals starting there today for Sunday's General Motors spec.

Danny Thomas belted "21" right in the Trendex (26 to 22.2) Monday night . . .

Frank Sinatra's ratings have everyone at ABC worried. The voice drew a drooping 13.4 Friday . . .

Ran third, in fact, behind NBC's "Adams and Eve" and CBS' "M-Squad." . . .

Wall Street Hears...

NEW YORK — (INS) — Wall Street Hears:

Greyhound net this year will be about the same as last year's $1.27 a share despite a boost in operating revenues to $265 million from $244 million last year. Almost all the increased gross will have to go to meet higher wages and other costs . . .

Tampa Electric plans to file a new rate structure before the end of the month, seeking to boost net from under 6 per cent of investment to nearly 7 . . .

McDonnell Aircraft may earn $10 million in the year ending next June 30 vs. $9,671,654, or $6.34 a share, in the previous year on $335¼ million sales. Volume is currently around $30 million a month . . .

Container Corporation will show an 8 to 9 per cent drop in net sales this year and net lower than last year's $1.71 a share is also indicated . . .

If, as Thomson and McKinnon thinks, freight carloadings "are likely to begin climbing out of their dismal depth," their list of high paying rail shares looks interesting: Santa Fe, St. Paul, Denver and Rio Grande, L&N, Southern Pacific and Southern Railway, all yielding from 6.9 to 11 per cent . . .

Market comment—S. B. Lurie of Josephthal and Company:

"November 1957 is a time for cash, concentration and flexibility —not diversification or any uncompromising position. Speculative opportunities can be found within the framework of the current trading range—and the overall pattern, too. For example, bank stocks and bonds are attractive. Candidates for a brighter 1958 also can be found in the airline, aircraft, building, drug, farm implement, fertilizer, food oil, tobacco industries."

Business Briefs . . .

NEW YORK—(INS)—Westinghouse Electric International Company announced today that Austria's industrial and mining enterprise has ordered more than $8,000,000 in electrical equipment from the company to power three new steel rolling mills. The mills are being added by Alpine Montan, Vienna, in a $56,000,000 modernization and expansion program aimed at doubling its yearly output of finished products to 800,000 tons.

NEW YORK — (INS) — D. K. Fraser, marketing director of Petters Ltd., of England, has announced introduction to the American market of a high-speed lightweight Diesel engine which makes it practicable to harness low-cost Diesel power to small agricultural, marine and industrial equipment. Fraser said the new Petters Diesel engines range in weight from 243 pounds for the single cylinder PC-1 to 503 pounds for the four-cylinder PC-4, largest in the new series.

SEATTLE, Wash. — (INS) — Boeing Airplane Company said today that a total of 151 four-jet Boeing 707 jet transports have been ordered by commercial airlines of the world. American Airlines leads the list with 30 orders, while Pan American World Airways, with 23, is the first commercial airlines scheduled to receive the mighty airliners, late in 1958. Other lines with orders placed are Braniff, Continental, Air France, Sabena, Trans World, Lufthansa, Air India, Qantas, BOAC, Cubana and Varig.

EVERYTHING I ATE TURNED TO GAS

"I was bothered by gas for fifteen years. Nothing I took for it, including baking soda, did any good," says Clyde L. Jordon of Muse, Okla. "Now, after taking Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery for a time, I enjoy any kind of food and sleep sound as a dollar."

Thousands of people who suffered gas pains, heartburn, stomach distress, due to acid indigestion, have tried Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery with amazing results. Over 35,000,000 bottles of this great non-alcoholic medicine, with its wonderful stomachic tonic action, have been sold. And no wonder. First, taken regularly, it promotes more normal stomach activity, thus helping to digest food better so you won't have gas, heartburn, sour stomach. Second, with stomach activity improved, you can eat the foods you like without fear of after-distress. Get Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery liquid or tablets, at your druggist today.

County School Group Plans To Attend Meet

Two staff members of the Allegany County Board of Education and several public school teachers are planning to attend a regional guidance counselor's meeting Monday in Hagerstown.

The sessions will be held from 10 a. m. until 3:30 p. m. in South Hagerstown High School.

The purpose of the conference is to consider the guidance services now available in public schools of Maryland and to discuss ways of improving these services throughout the state.

Miss Sarah Leiter, supervisor of pupil services for the Maryland State Department of Education, will be in charge of the sessions.

Richard T. Rizer, assistant superintendent of Allegany County public schools and Lewyn C. Davis, supervisor of junior high schools, are planning to attend the conference.

Also expecting to attend are the following teachers: Mrs. Catherine McGiboney, Bruce High School, Westernport; Miss Jane Grindle, Beall High School; Edward Meconi, Mt. Savage.

John Snider, Allegany High School; Ralph Weimer, Fort Hill; Hays Chambers, Pennsylvania Avenue, and James Preaskorn, Valley High.

Similar conferences are scheduled in Baltimore November 20 and in Easton on November 22. Monday's conference will have representatives from Allegany, Garrett, Washington, Frederick and Montgomery counties.

Man Late For Meeting Also Picks Wrong Hall

NORMAN, Okla. (AP) — A man rushed into the Norman Chamber of Commerce office and told City Manager John F. Malone "sorry I'm late for the meeting."

"What meeting?" asked Malone.

"A retail trade committee meeting," said the man.

"That was last Monday," Malone explained.

Suddenly a light dawned on the man's face and he explained as he rushed for the door: "I remember now. It wasn't the Chamber at all. The meeting is at the Baptist Church."

Annexation Off

BLACKSBURG, Va. (AP) — The town of Blacksburg has given up plans to annex the Virginia Tech campus. College students demonstrated against annexation when word spread that students would then be required to buy town license tags for their cars.

New Mexico Youth Works With Falcon

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M. — (INS) — A 13-year-old Albuquerque boy is raising a pet falcon in the medieval tradition of falconry.

John Griggs, son of Roy L. Griggs of the U. S. Geological Survey, found a young hawk in a cliff nest near Tucumcari.

Griggs named the bird Buccaneer and has raised it with tender care. Just recently, after corresponding with professional falconers in Europe and the United States, he began to train Buccaneer for hunitng.

The boy has all the equipment needed for the ancient sport of kings; a leather hood with feathered plumes, leather gauntlets, British leather game bags, leg leases (jesses) and special metal swivels for falcon's leases, metal bells from Pakistan and Europe, and the most important item of all, sturdy leather gloves.

Rainmaker Skill Based On Science

BOSTON — (INS) — Ever since some prehistoric thinker concluded that rain was requisite to survival, man has been trying to create precipitation.

He has invented rain gods, danced, prayed, fired cannons into the air, clanged cymbals, waved wands and sent up clouds of smoke.

Now man is back to using smoke, but he's using it scientifically rather than superstitiously.

Modern "rain maker" Dr. Wallace E. Howell of Lexington, Mass., utilizes smoke to waft silver iodide into moisture-laden clouds to induce rain.

Exactly how successful this method is is open to debate. It does appear he can help nature to some extent.

Back in 1950, Dr. Howell "seeded" clouds over New York state with silver iodide. He also dropped dry ice from airplanes, a method he has since discarded as too expensive and not too productive.

Navy Man Re-enlists After Trip Across U. S.

SPRINGFIELD, Mass. (AP) — A Norwich, Conn., Navy man of 18 years' service flew across country from San Diego, Calif., to Springfield in order to re-enlist.

Chief Yeoman Carlo Rudilosso, 35, took a commercial airline from the West Coast after being discharged and re-enlisted at the regional recruiting station here.

Another objective in his long trip East was to visit his wife, Dorothy, a student at Willimantic (Conn.) State Teachers College, and their 17-year-old daughter, Marcia.

Seven Acres Of Brushland Burned Over

A fire on Wagner Ridge northwest of Oldtown yesterday afternoon burned over seven acres of scrub and brush land.

District Forester William H. Johnson said he received a call at his office about noon notifying him of the fire. The blaze was brought under control during the afternoon by boys from the Green Ridge Forestry Camp who were supervised by William Slider, forest guard.

Mr. Johnson said yesterday the fire danger is growing day by day and asks those who plan to burn debris or brush near wooded areas to exercise caution.

He pointed out the fire season comes to a close on December 15. Mr. Johnson asks that brush burning regulations be followed and stresses that burning must be done after 4 p. m.

If debris is to be burned within 200 feet of a woodland area, according to Mr. Johnson, a fire break line should be constructed measuring a minimum of 10 feet in width around the area.

The fire should be watched until the last remaining ember is extinguished. As a precautionary measure sufficient men and tools should be available in the event the fire breaks out of bounds.

Average life expectancy of an electric light bulb is 800 hours.

Tawes Happy Over Sybert Aid In Race

J. Millard Tawes said yesterday he was highly gratified that Attorney General C. Ferdinand Sybert has thrown his support to him in the race for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination.

"I welcome it as a highly important contribution towards unity in the Democratic party and deeply appreciate its expression of confidence in me," the state comptroller said in a statement.

Tawes said he was delighted with assurances of support he had received from all parts of the state and the Democratic party.

Last Sunday about 100 Harford County Democrats, including former U.S. Sen. Millard E. Tydings, endorsed Tawes for the party's nomination. At the same time they supported Sybert for renomination.

Of Sybert, Tawes said in today's statement: "It will be a great pleasure for me to support him for that office and to ask my friends to do likewise."

Over 2,000 Polio Shots Given Children

Over 2,000 shots of polio vaccine were given by the Allegany County Health Department to school children last month despite the incidence of flu which caused some curtailment in the program.

The polio immunization was resumed in schools throughout the county this week and plans call for the program to be pushed during the next few weeks.

By the end of the school term next spring, virtually every student in the public and parochial schools of the county will have been provided the protection offered by three shots of Salk polio vaccine through their doctors or the Health Department.

This, according to Mrs. Jennie J. Grahame, administrative assistant, will give "excellent coverage" for those up to 20.

Future protection for this part of the county's population seems assured as the shots are routinely given to children by family physicians and those missed get the shots from the Health Department along with the customary DPT shots (for diphtheria, whooping cough and tetanus) in child health clinics or when they enter school.

To finish the job, since the shots are needed by all under 40, the American Medical Association is asking doctors to round up the stragglers.

Dr. David B. Allman, AMA president, advised that by October 10, the number of paralytic polio cases for 1957 was down 70 per cent.

The fight is not over, he warned, as there are still over 37,000,000 people under 40 who have not received their first injection, and about 44 million need second or third shots.

In urging doctors to join in a cleanup operation to provide protection for all under 40, Dr. Allman expressed the hope that "polio will soon take its place with diphtheria and whooping cough as a routine immunization for infants and children."

Last month, the Health Department gave 366 first shots, 172 second shots and 1,774 third shots.

Although the bulk of the shots went to school children, the total included 275 immunizations for tots under 5 and eight shots for pregnant women.

Young trees should be planted within 48 hours after they are received.

CELEBRATES 80TH BIRTHDAY — Former United Nations Ambassador Warren R. Austin is all smiles as he received his 80th birthday cake from his valet, Thomas Matthews, at Burlington, Vt., yesterday. ## Gordon Boone Will Run For Senate Seat

TOWSON, Md. (AP) — Del. A. Gordon Boone, Democratic majority leader in the House of Delegates, has officially entered the race for the State Senate from Baltimore County.

Boone announced yesterday he filed for the post held by Sen. John Grason Turnbull, Senate Democratic majority leader.

Turnbull announced some time ago he would not seek reelection. He is expected to run for a statewide post.

Adults Added To Fire Department At Spencer

SPENCER, W. Va. (AP)—Spencer's volunteer fire department is growing up. Adults are being added to the department, previously manned entirely by teenaged boys.

The State Inspection Bureau, which sets insurance rates, warned that adults would have to be taken into the department if Spencer was to retain its favorable fire rates.

Auto Makers Watch Seat Belt Life Saving Show

ALAMOGORDO, N.M. (AP)—Representatives of U. S. auto makers watched live demonstrations yesterday in how safety devices such as seat belts work toward saving human life.

A man rode through one demonstration. A bear was used in another. A pig died in a test.

A black bear was strapped on an electrically-propelled catapult-action sled. The test was to demonstrate how safety devices built into new cars can save people in car wrecks.

Scientists have explained that bears are good experimental subjects because their bone structure, especially their backbones, is similar to man's.

The pig died in a similar demonstration. The vehicle was directed into a barrier to see what effects forces experienced in a collision would have on a human.

Air Force Capt. Eli L. Beeding Jr. took a ride in a chair propelled along a short track and brought to a sudden, jarring stop, demonstrating how safety belts work in a sudden deceleration like a person undergoes in a collision.

Bellman Jones, traffic safety coordinator of the Automobile Safety Belt Institute, Chicago, said that in the view of American automobile engineers and safety experts, the research being done by Col. John P. Stapp could save the lives of up to 20,000 motorists a year.

He said the knowledge also would minimize or prevent up to one million traffic injuries a year.

Biddles, Dukes Throw $2,500 Family Party

By EDDY GILMORE

LONDON (AP) — A dollar-laden family theater party got rolling merrily along yesterday in London's plush West End.

Here for the charity premiere of a play about themselves, "The Happiest Millionaire," were members of the wealthy Biddle and Duke families, plus some rich friends.

Hours before the first curtain, the carpeted corridors of the Ritz echoed with the popping of champagne corks and the squeaks of caviar cans being opened. The party cost about $2,500.

"Millionaires?" said Mrs. Cordelia Robertson in reply to a reporter's question. "Who cares about millionaires. Everyone's a millionaire these days."

Mrs. Robertson, the former Cordelia Drexel Biddle, is portrayed in the play by actress Maureen Swanson, a British beauty.

"This play is the true picture of my life," said Mrs. Robertson, now married to architect Markoe Robertson.

"I ran away from school, brought home a young man named Angier Duke and told my parents I was going to marry him."

She said her family was astounded. So were the Dukes.

The marriage ended in divorce.

Mrs. Robertson's father was Col. Anthony J. Drexel Biddle—"the happiest millionaires" of the play. He is portrayed by Canadian actor Robert Beatty.

Among the others on hand for the play—already a Broadway hit—were Mrs. Robertson's husband; her son, Angier Biddle Duke, cousin of the rich Doris Duke; and Mrs. Robertson's nephew, Nicholas Biddle.

Mrs. Robertson said her father was a happy millionaire and she is a happy millionairess. Why?

"Because I have a good nature and money doesn't mean a thing to me. I just don't understand it."

Former Mayor To Be Honored

Former Mayor Thomas W. Post will be one of nine past presidents who will be honored during the annual convention of the Maryland Municipal League, tomorrow through Saturday in Baltimore.

The past president will be presented life memberships in the organization at the tenth annual dinner Friday evening. The certificates will be presented by Mayor Roy W. Eves, president of the league, and Mayor Thomas D'Alesandro, president of the league's council.

Former Mayor Post is superintendent of the city's new $2,000,000 sewage treatment plant.

Study System In Graduate Schools Hit

NEW YORK (AP) — Graduate school deans of four leading universities have sharply attacked study practices of the nation's graduate schools and recommended sweeping revisions.

The report was made to the Assn. of Graduate Schools by Dr. Jacques Barzun, dean of graduate school of arts and sciences, Duke; Dr. A. R. Gordon, dean of the University of Toronto's graduate school; and Dr. J. P. Elder, dean of the graduate school of arts and sciences at Harvard.

They said they were shocked at some existing graduate school practices concerning studies leading to master of arts and doctor of philosophy degrees.

The report said it is essential to strengthen the prestigate and quality of advanced degrees because of growing demands for men and women with Ph.D.'s in all fields.

Ph.D. programs, they said, are "tortuously slow and riddled with needless uncertainties," and frequently "inefficient and traumatically disagreeable to the bewildered and frustrated candidate."

The report recommended these changes in the Ph.D. program:

1. The entire program should not take more than three years of residence.
2. Admission requirements should be tightened, and candidates should show they can write respectable English and know two foreign languages.
3. A faculty member should act as an adviser with the individual candidate.
4. Two courses should be required—a "pre-seminar" the first year and a seminar the second year.
5. The thesis should show evidence of ability, research and competence in developing original work.

Residents Irked By Sewage Bills

Numerous complaints are being received at the City Hall about sewage treatment bills which are being mailed out to residents.

City Auditor Arthur B. Gibson said many of the complaints are coming from people who use city water for air conditioning.

He said he has been explaining that the present sewage charge ordinance does not provide for relief in such cases.

Water used by air conditioners is dumped into the sewage system and is pumped to the plant for treatment.

Mr. Gibson said he is explaining to everyone that the city is taking up sewage treatment problems as they arise.

The biggest immediate problem is the charge made to industries. Some of them are major water users, but much of the water purchased goes out in bottles or kegs or up in steam and does not enter sewer lines.

Sewage charges to industries are being made on the basis of individual studies in order to reach a fair assessment.

Methodist Membership Passes 9½ Million Mark

CHICAGO—Membership in The Methodist Church in the United States and its possessions has passed the 9½ million mark.

The Rev. Albert C. Hoover of Chicago, director of the statistical office of The Methodist Church, reported that during the past year church membership has increased from 9,444,820 to 9,566,629. This figure includes the denomination's 26,872 clergymen, but does not include 1,382,207 preparatory members (baptized children).

Rev. Mr. Hoover's report is based on the latest figures furnished his office by the church's 100 annual (regional) conferences in the United States, Alaska, Hawaii and Puerto Rico. Cuba is also included in the count because it is affiliated with the Jacksonville, Fla., Area.

1.24 Per Cent Increase

The church received 763,722 members during the year—378,031 of whom came on profession of faith, but losses by transfer, death and pruning of church rolls cut the net gain down to 121,809, or a 1.24 per cent increase over 1956.

The statistical report shows 39,359 organized churches. Heretofore the report has listed "preaching places." Some of these "preaching places" are outposts on circuits where a church group has not been formally organized. Last year's report listed 39,845 "preaching places," about 500 more than this year's "organized churches."

The grand total paid for all purposes was $443,677,506—nearly 30 million in excess of the 1956 total.

The amount paid for building and improvements dropped from $114,937,476 to $109,549,643, but the churches paid $44,111,054 on indebtedness — nearly ten million more in debt payments than a year ago.

Estimated value of church buildings and equipment and land is $2,217,026,516.

Church School Up

The total church school membership has now passed the seven million mark—7,052,660, with an average attendance at Sunday School of 3,710,849. Each figure is about 100,000 more than in 1956.

There are 38,146 church schools, 223 more than last year and leaving only 1,213 organized churches which do not have church schools.

The Woman's Society of Christian Service now has 31,259 local groups with a total of 1,788,129 members. The women raised $17,595,381 for work in their local churches and sent $10,515,142 for their missions program throughout American and overseas.

Methodist Men have 403,253 members in 10,195 chartered clubs in local churches.

Social Security Parley Planned

City officials planned a further conference next week on plans for a referendum to provide Social Security coverage for members of the Police and Fire Departments.

Mayor Roy W. Eves said council has a better understanding and interest in the proposal after a briefing yesterday by James E. Robertson, manager of the local SS office. Robertson told council, Eves said, that he would have sessions with police and firemen after council has decided upon the course it will take.

Eves has met with Robertson several times previously. Council must approve the referendum and the effective date before the 100 members of the departments can vote. The city must match worker contributions.

Mayor Eves said the coverage can be made retroactive to January 1, 1956 of 1957, or can be delayed until next January 1.

Back payments by both workers and the city would be required if the plan is to be retroactive.

Members of the department, he said, would be able to vote on coverage and any effective dates approved by the Council.

At stake in the choice of dates for the beginning of coverage are retirement benefits which might be made available for several older members of the departments.

Navy Reserve Unit To Get Top Trophy

Ceremony Scheduled Today At Auditorium Of Allegany High

Top Navy officials will be here tonight as Cumberland Surface Division 5-9, Naval Reserve, receives the Forrestal Trophy for being rated the top Naval Reserve unit in the nation in 1957.

Presentation ceremonies begin at 7 p. m. following a short parade that will start at 6 p. m. from City Hall to the Court House.

Here for the presentation will be Hon. Richard Jackson, assistant secretary of the Navy; Rear Admiral F. Massie Hughes, commandant, Fifth Naval Reserve, Norfolk, Va.; Rear Admiral John McN. Taylor, assistant chief of Naval operations; Capt. Alexander Jackson, assistant chief of Navy personnel for Naval Reserve, and Capt. Thomas P. Llowndes, who will represent the commander of the Naval Reserve Training Command, Omaha, Neb.

Two Band Concerts

Admiral Taylor and Capt. Jackson will arrive here from Washington with the assistant secretary of the Navy, while Capt. Llowndes will fly here from Omaha. Admiral Hughes arrived here early this afternoon from Norfolk.

The schedule of events will start at 5:30 p. m. at City Hall Plaza with a half hour concert by the band of the U. S. Navy School of Music, Washington, conducted by Chief Musician Walter N. Ridge.

The parade at 6 p. m. from the City Hall will include the band and a Navy and Marine Corps color Guard.

A band concert at 7 p. m. will precede the ceremonies. The invocation will be given by the unit chaplain, Lt. (J.G.) Paul D. Caravetta, Frostburg, pastor of First Presbyterian Church there.

The welcome will be given by Ralph R. Webster, superintendent of Allegany County public schools, in behalf of the Mayor of Cumberland and the county Board of Education.

Hughes To Speak

Lt. (j. g.) J. Glenn Beall Jr., Frostburg, a member of the unit, will be master of ceremonies and introduce the guests. These include U. S. Sen. J. Glenn Beall Sr., Rep. DeWitt S. Hyde, (R-6th Md.), Dr. W. Ardell Haines, principal of Allegany High School, and J. Paul Blundon. Keyser, rear admiral, CEC, USNR, Retired.

Admiral Hughes will speak and also present the Fifth Naval District Trophy to the Cumberland unit, together with other Navy achievement awards.

Jackson will then present the Forrestal Trophy, which the Cumberland unit won over 308 other large Naval Reserve centers in the nation.

Receiving the award will be Lt. Cmdr. Paul M. Arbogast, USNR, commanding officer of the Cumberland Surface Division.

Following the ceremonies, the Navy Mothers Club will serve refreshments in the high school cafeteria for Navy personnel and their families.

Visit Allegany Ballistics

At 9:30 p. m. a reception will be held at the Cumberland Country Club for Jackson.

Late this afternoon, the top Navy officials will tour Allegany Ballistics Laboratory, a Navy rocket research center operated by Hercules Powder Company.

The officers and the secretary will leave Cumberland tomorrow morning.

Cumberland Surface Division, during its year-long competition for the Forrestal Trophy, has been under the guidance of Lt. Cmdr. Gordon McCrea, USNR, commanding officer of the Naval and Marine Reserve Training Center.

Cumberland's winning of the trophy marks the first time it had been won in the Fifth Naval District. Oddly enough, second place nationally went to Newport News, Va., also in the Fifth Naval District. Third place was taken by Pasadena, Calif.

LOCAL NAVY RESERVE TOPS IN NATION—This symbolic picture taken at the Navy Reserve Training Center in Cumberland signifies the winning of the Forrestal Trophy by Cumberland Surface Division 5-9, Naval Reserve. The coveted trophy awarded each year to the unit rated the best in the nation will be presented by Assistant Secretary of the Navy Richard Jackson today at 7 p. m. in Allegany High School auditorium. Above, at left, is Naval reservists Helen Metz, PN1, and Donald Murray, YN 2, standing on either side of an enlarged model of the trophy. Pictured to the right is Rear Admiral F. Massie Hughes, commandant of the Fifth Naval District, who will present the Fifth Naval District Trophy to the local unit.

Speedliner Figures In Two Deaths

Fatality Here Second In Two Days Involving Passenger Train

The death yesterday afternoon of an Eastern Shore chemistry teacher beneath the wheels of the B&O Railroad's three-coach Speedliner on the Baltimore Street crossing marked the second day in a row in which the Speedliner figured in a fatality.

On Monday a youth, Ronald Lu, 9, was struck by the Speedliner at the outskirts of Washington in the Silver Spring and Takoma Park area. Another youth, Douglas Coffin, 9, a son of Rep. Frank M. Coffin (D-Me.), narrowly escaped in this accident.

Irvin M. Wolford, of Cresaptown, was the engineer of the Speedliner when it struck the boy.

Dies In 40 Minutes

In yesterday's fatality, Thomas W. Fleming, 51, of 100 Cherry Street, St. Michaels, was struck by the Pittsburgh-bound Speedliner at Baltimore Street and died about 40 minutes later in Sacred Heart Hospital. Fleming was here for the funeral of his mother who died Monday.

Dr. H. V. Deming, deputy county medical examiner said death was accidental.

Authorities said the accident occurred at 1:16 p. m. Mr. Fleming apparently was walking south across the tracks as the Speedliner pulled out of the station on Track No. 1.

The family said he had been at the apartment of his late mother, Mrs. Nora Fleming, 217 Glenn Street, and was on his way to the Stein Funeral Chapel to meet his wife. The couple then planned to meet a niece of Mrs. Fleming, Miss Marguerite Walker, who was to arrive by bus from Wheeling, W. Va., at 1:20 p. m.

The mother, who was in her 80s, died Monday after a lengthy illness. Services for the mother had been set for today at 9 a. m. at St. Patrick's Catholic Church. She was head of the Traveler's Aid Society here for 20 years.

Dragged 26 Feet

Police said Mr. Fleming was rolled or dragged about 26 feet beneath the Speedliner, which passed over his body before coming to a stop.

Train crew members said it appeared that the victim threw up his hands and tried to jump as the train struck him. Another unidentified witness told police the man looked as if he were trying to throw himself out of the path of the train.

Authorities said a watchman, Henry Kelly of 14 Market Street, was on duty at the time but was on the opposite side of the tracks and did not see the accident.

Mr. Fleming was taken to Sacred Heart Hospital by ambulance. He died there at 1:56 p. m.

Dr. Deming said the man sustained a crushed chest, crushed pelvis, fractured skull, fracture of the left leg below the knee, deep lacerations of the scalp and abrasions.

B&O spokesmen here said the train, No. 21, which goes from Philadelphia to Pittsburgh, Pa., leaves the Cumberland station at 1:15 p. m. It was delayed here approximately 10 minutes by the accident.

Members of the train crew were C. H. Allen, Hyndman, Pa., en-

Pollock Repeats Proposal For Four-Day Week

ROCK HILL, S. C. — The proposal made by the Textile Workers Union that the work week be cut to 35 hours while maintaining 40 hours' pay was reiterated here by William Pollock, general president.

Pollock, addressing more than 1,000 employes of the Celriver plant of Celanese Corp. of America at the dedication of the new $50,000 hall of Local 1093, said the anti-trust laws prevented the industry from enforcing the four-day week suggested by F. E. Grier, president of Abney Mills, Greenwood, S. C.

"If anybody has a better suggestion than ours, let him come forward," Pollock said.

Third Quarter Income Up For Celanese

Slight Drop Noted For First Nine Months Of Year

Net income of $8,546,368 for the nine months ended September 30, after charges and taxes, was reported today by the Celanese Corporation of America.

The nine months' earnings, equivalent to 86 cents a share of common stock, compare with 1956 earnings during the same period of $8,901,652, equivalent to 92 cents a common share.

Sales Advance

Net sales for the first nine months of 1957 amounted to $145,569,988, compared with net sales during last year's same period of $136,974,216. For the three-month period ended September 30, 1957, net sales were $50,264,997 and earnings $2,932,478. This compares with net sales of $42,552,949 and earnings of $2,716,050 during the quarter ended September 30, 1956.

In making the report, President Harold Blancke told stockholders that during the last quarter, the company completed construction of a new unit at Bishop, Texas, that will increase production of formaldehyde, acetone, methanol, acetaldehyde, and other chemicals to meet increasing demands. In addition, he noted, a new acrylate ester unit, brought into production in Pampa, Texas, will supply raw materials for water base paints, leather and textile finishings, adhesives and specialty rubbers.

Arnel Uses

Anticipated improvement in sales of Celanese yarns and fibers is being realized and sales of the company's chemicals and plastics continue to increase, Blancke said.

A practical, economical process for the continuous dyeing of Arnel triacetate in blends and combinations with cotton and/or rayon, utilizing available com-

Kahl Leaves Comptroller Race In State

BALTIMORE (AP) — Christian H. Kahl withdrew today from the race for Democratic nomination comptroller of Maryland and announced he would run in the party primary for Baltimore County executive officer.

Kahl, former president of the board of county commissioners, had announced Nov. 4 he would seek the nomination for comptroller if he obtained "offers of substantial support."

In announcing his decision to switch goals, he said today:

"While I have been gratified by the substantial offers of support received, the major reaction to this announcement has been an overwhelming evidence that most of the Democrats of Baltimore County prefer that I run for county executive instead."

The decision left State Sen. Louis L. Goldstein (D-Calvert) as the only major candidate for the party's nomination for comptroller.

In the May 20 primary Kahl will be bidding to succeed Michael J. Birmingham, who has announced he will not seek the nomination to retain his post as county executive.

Beer License Revoked; Store Permit Suspended

The beer license of a local tavern has been revoked and the beer, wine and liquor permit of a package goods store suspended for 22 days by the Allegany County Board of Alcoholic Beverage License Commissioners.

The licensees of both places have received hearings before the board on show cause citations.

The beer license of Genevieve C. Mongold, trading as Jigg's Tavern, 143 North Centre Street, has been revoked and the permit of the Cumberland Liquor Store, Inc., 419 Henderson Avenue, has been suspended for 22 days, effective November 17 and running through December 8.

Licensees of the package liquor store are Justus Grabenstein, Mary Emma Carolan and Margaret Schooly. The permit was suspended as a result of a conviction in Circuit Court last month on a charge of selling a bottle of wine to a minor. The firm was fined $500 in this case.

The permit of Jigg's Tavern was revoked because of the unsanitary conditions and also because of disorder allowed on the premises.

An opinion filed by the board in the Jigg's Tavern case states that Edward R. Willison and Angus Turnbull, inspectors for the board, visited the place numerous times and found the place in a dirty and unsanitary condition. They found no running water at the bar in which to wash glasses and the rest rooms in an unsanitary condition with no running water and the floor in a hazardous condition.

Two city police officers, John Powers and Clarence Valentine, testified concerning numerous complaints about disorders at the place and the many calls they answered and of making an arrest on one occasion.

"The board cannot permit a place like this to be operated as has been disclosed by the evidence and has come to the conclusion the license should be revoked. The license will be revoked as of November 23 at midnight," the opinion of the board members stated.

The opinion in both cases was signed by Stanley O. Hamilton, chairman, and Howard Vandegrift and Estel C. Kelley, members.

New Parking Rules Slated Here Monday

Progress In Flood Project Permits Regulation Change

Progress in the flood protection work around the B&O Viaduct area will result in an easement of the parking regulations on Mechanic Street from the Viaduct to Market Street, according to Police Commissioner William V. Keegan.

Beginning Monday, the 8 to 10 a. m. parking ban that has been in effect several months will be lifted, and parking will be permitted on the east side of the street only, between the viaduct and Market Street, from 4 to 6 p. m.

The ban on morning parking was placed at the request of the E. J. Albrecht Company, according to Chief of Police R. Emmett Flynn, who said the firm at the time was engaged in hauling excess dirt from the area around the viaduct.

Ban Safety Measure

The ban, he continued, was put into effect not only as a safety measure for the large trucks used by the construction firm, but also to enable the city street sweeper to clean up the dirt and mud that was a traffic hazard when wet and a health hazard when dry, due to dust.

Albrecht officials yesterday notified Commissioner Keegan that the firm's trucks would be hauling no more dirt from Wills Creek, at least until after the first of the year.

The excess dirt in the creek bed, the commissioner was informed, will be used in the construction of a coffer dam that will divert the flow of water from the west side of Wills Creek while concrete is laid on that portion of the creek bed.

New Parking Rule

With the lifting of the morning parking ban, Commissioner Keegan deemed it advisable to place the west side of Market Street between the viaduct and Market Street under the restriction that covers both sides of the street from Market to Baltimore Street between 4 and 6 p. m.

Beginning Monday, Chief Flynn was informed to prohibit parking during those hours on the west side of the street. The street is to be marked, Chief Flynn said, to have the left lane for the use of motorists who wish to make a right hand turn onto the Market Street bridge, with the other lane directed for the use of drivers traveling to Baltimore Street, or who want to turn left towards Centre Street.

Work of placing signs and marking the street will be done prior to Monday, Chief Flynn said.

Death Verdict 'Accidental'

A verdict of accidental death has been issued by authorities in the fatal fall of George W. Wilson, 41, of 101 Independence Street.

Mr. Wilson fell down a flight of stairs at the home of a friend on Goethe Street last Friday evening. He was taken to Memorial Hospital where he died Monday.

Dr. H. V. Deming said cause of his death was compression of the spinal cord due to fracture of the third cervicle vertebra and partial dislocation of the fourth cervicle vertebra. Secondary complications included lobar pneumonia which set in later. Dr. Deming said also that Mr. Wilson was almost completely paralyzed from the neck down when admitted to the hospital Saturday morning.

Services for Mr. Wilson will be held tomorrow at 2 p. m. from the Silcox Funeral Residence. Interment will be in Mt. Herman Cemetery.

Pritts Garage Awarded $891

Chief Judge George Henderson today awarded Ralph Pritts, trading as Pritts Garage in Oakland, a total of $891.48 in a damage suit brought by the garage owner against Orville Eberly and Aubra O. Goehringer, both of Oakland.

The suit, removed to Circuit Court here from Garrett County, was brought by Pritts for damages to three autos parked in front of his garage which were struck by a vehicle owned and operated by the defendants.

Walter W. Dawson, of Oakland, and Earl E. Manges, city, were attorneys for Pritts while W. Earle Cobey and William R. Carscaden were attorneys for defendants.

Boy Hurt At Play

Gary Clower, 10, of near Moorefield, W. Va., was admitted last night to Memorial Hospital with a fractured right arm suffered when he fell while playing at Moorefield School.

Players To Meet

Algonquin Players, local theatrical group, will have a membership meeting today at 8 p.m. in City Hall.

TO SPEAK HERE — O. W. "Bud" Bennett, national director of Cub Scouting service for the Boy Scouts of America, will conduct a training session for adult Cub leaders of Potomac Council, BSA, tomorrow at 7:30 p. m. in the Fiesta Room of Central YMCA.

Scout Leader Will Conduct Adult Class

O.W. Bennett Coming Here Tomorrow For Session At YMCA

O. W. "Bud" Bennett, national director of Cub Scouting Service, Boy Scouts of America, will be here in the Fiesta Room of Central YMCA tomorrow at 7:30 p. m. to conduct a training course for adult Cub leaders of Potomac Council.

Dr. Thomas Bess, Keyser, council president, said the council has been fortunate in securing the services of Bennett for this informative session which will include a question and answer period.

Bennett's national position has him preparing training helps for leaders of Cub packs. This includes visual aids, program notebooks and other literature.

His courses include chalk talks, as he is an accomplished cartoonist. He appeared at the council Cub "pow wow" here four years ago.

Bennett, a native of Redfield, S. D., served as volunteer leader in Scouting for ten years as assistant Scoutmaster, troop committeeman and field commissioner in his home town at St. Paul, Minn.

Following 14 years in advertising and sales promotion, he decided to become a professional Scouter. After graduation from the 71st National Training School for Professional Leaders in 1941, he became field executive and then assistant executive at Toledo, Ohio.

From 1944 to 1947 he was Scout Executive of the Mound Builders Council at Middletown, Ohio. In 1947 he joined the national BSA staff as assistant to the national director of Scouting service.

In 1949 he became the national director of Explorer service and was promoted to his present position in 1952.

Police Probe Store Entry

City Police are investigating a breaking and entering of a local business establishment that occurred sometime after closing hours yesterday and 8 a. m. today.

Police said the Southern States Co-Operative bulding at the head of North Centre Street was entered, with entry being made through a rear window which had been broken. A blind had been closed over the broken window in order that it escape detection.

A check of the premises this morning indicated a rifle and carrying case, portable radio and a 12-guage shotgun had been taken. Value of the missing articles was estimated at approximately $150.

Authorities were also informed that filing cabinets at the establishments ere opened, but that nothing appeared to be missing from them.

Education Week To Be Observed

Cresaptown School Parent-Teacher Association will have a program in observance of American Education Week tomorrow at 8 p. m.

Theodore Foote, supervisor of art education for the Allegany County Board of Education, will speak on art education in elementary schools.

Following group singing, refreshments will be served by the teachers.

Room visitation by parents with teachers will be from 7:15 p. m. to 7:55 p. m.

LaVale School Will Mark Education Week

The LaVale School will celebrate education week with a tea and visitation Thursday at the school.

The visitation will be from 1:30 until 2:15 p. m. and will be followed by the serving of refreshments in the auditorium.

Miss Nellie Powell, principal, is in charge of the visitation and Mrs. Donald Paulman, chairman of home room mothers, will be in charge of the tea.

W. A. Wilson Slated To Get County Post

William Lemmert Given Assessor Job By Tax Commission

Allegany County gets a new assistant supervisor of assessments and a new county commissioner.

William H. Lemmert, Frostburger who has been a county commissioner for 11 years, has received the appointment to the assistant's position created by the 1957 session of the General Assembly.

Today, James S. Getty, chairman of the Allegany County Republican Central Committee, said the committee members were polled and unanimous choice as Lemmert's successor on the Board of Allegany County Commissioners was William A. Wilson, Midland, Republican.

To Leave Soon

Lemmert today reported that he will probably leave the commissioners post about the end of the month, as on December 2 William Riley, chief supervisor of assessments will be here to confer with him on his new duties.

Albert W. Ward, executive secretary of the Maryland State Tax Commission, last night announced the unanimous decision of the full commission in the appointment of Lemmert.

The commission which met yesterday in Baltimore is comprised of Cornelius P. Mundy, chairman, Owen E. Hitchins and John Wood Logan.

The commissioners acted today after requesting the names of five nominees from the county commissioners. These included Lemmert, W. Edward Eichner, an assessor for 14 years, and Francis J. Plummer and David E. Kirk, members of the county tax assessing staff, and Ernest B. Treat, assistant tax collector.

Pays About $6,000

Under the law creating the position of assistant supervisor of assessments, no salary was listed, but it is understood it will pay about $6,000 a year.

The county will pay 40 per cent of the salary and the state, 60 per cent.

Wilson has been active in Republican politics in Allegany County for over 20 years.

He is a native of Cumberland, the son of Mr. and Mrs. William C. Wilson, 226 Cecelia Street. He was graduated from Pennsylvania Avenue High School in 1931. He is married to the former Aleda Blair of Midland and the couple has three daughters.

Worked In Office

Wilson went to work in 1937 in the county commissioners office, and the following year transferred to the clerk of Allegany County Circuit Court's office, where he served for 13 years.

In 1951 he was named to the Board of Allegany County Election Supervisors, serving until this June.

Wilson is a member of Georges Creek Lodge, A.F.&A.M., and the Lonaconing Lions Club. He is secretary-treasurer of the Cumberland Office Supply Company.

Seven Firms Obtain Plans

Washington County May Seek Relief

Want Law Changed Limiting Interest On Bond Issues

HAGERSTOWN (AP)—State Sen. Charles Downey (R-Washington) says an effort may be made between now and Jan. 1 for a special session of the General Assembly to ease restrictions on county school bond issues.

Downey made the comment last night when he and other county legislators met with the Board of County Commissioners and the Board of Education.

The legislators were asked to amend an authorization law which prohibits the county from paying more than 3 per cent interest on bond issues.

Only State Bills

Downey told the county officials he doubted such a bill could be introduced during the 30-day session of the General Assembly next year because of a rule that only statewide bills could be acted upon. He also said it would not come under emergency local legislation which could be introduced.

But other counties apparently will find themselves unable to float a bond issue unless the General Assembly allows higher interest payments, Downey said. He predicted an effort might be made for a special session immediately following the end of the regular session.

The bond situation in Washington County as explained to legislators by the commissioners and school board members is this:

Needs More Money

The county needs to borrow another 1½ million dollars to complete a five year school building program. Under authorizing legislation passed some years ago it can't pay more than 3 per cent interest. But the national money situation makes it impossible to float a bond issue at under 4 per cent interest.

The county officials also told the legislators that the General Assembly must find new sources of tax revenue for the counties to meet growing school needs. They said the increased burden of the school programs is becoming too heavy for property owners.

Washington County faces an increase of 10 cents in the property tax rate next year as a result of salary increases given teachers, the county officials said.

Machen Faces Jackson In Heavy Bout Tonight

Allegany High's football coach Chet Payne is not one to go around talking to himself, but if he is caught doing just that nowadays he has ample reason.

The Campers, who have been either very good or very bad in their seven games to date, had another tough blow yesterday when hard-luck fullback Doug Walker suffered a dislocated elbow in a blocking and tackling workout. The injury will finish Doug's career on the gridiron for the Alco team.

Walker, a workhorse, two-way performer when able to play, thus has come down with his second injury this year — the one yesterday writing finis to his playing for Alco.

Walker, co-captain and All-City honorable mention last year when he teamed with Dave Conley as the Campers' one-two backfield punch, had been counted on by Payne for a lot of action this fall. But Doug's troubles began in a hurry. And then he was never quite able to regain his effectiveness all season.

In attempting to run back an intercepted pass against Beall in the second quarter of the lidlifter, Doug came down hard on his ankle, twisted it and had to miss the next three games. Alco's attack sputtered wtih Walker on the sidelines.

When he was able to return, starting in the second half against South Hagerstown on offense, Walker gave his mates a tremendous lift and scored a pair of touchdowns as the Rebels were victims of Allegany's best offensive in being routed, 32-0.

The ankle injury prevented coach Payne from allowing Walker to play defense but with each week he was regaining more strength and it appeared he would soon be able to put in full time duty. Against LaSalle, he got Allegany's only TD, plunging over from a yard away.

He was again the workhorse for Allegany in last week's game against Westminster but the Owls were hitting on all cylinders and even a fully recovered Walker couldn't stop them as they flew to a 39-0 rout.

Payne had counted on Gerald Horton to fill the shoes of Walker but again an injury has cancelled out that plan. Horton, who also does the Campers' punting, suffered a nose injury against Westminster last Friday early in the game and had to sit out the rest of the game. He won't be available this week and may have to undergo an operation which would also keep him out the rest of the season.

Two other starters, center Claude Mangus and guard Albert Rexroad, haven't been able to suit up all week with Mangus having a knee injury and Rexroad a hip ailment. Both had been two-way performers.

It has been that way all season for Payne and his squad. The flu bug racked them for their game against Martinsburg last month with the contest set for this Friday night in the West Virginia town. They even had the bug effect them after most of the team had recovered when Frederick was forced to postpone its game here two weeks ago because of the illness on the Cadets' team.

As has been pointed out, Payne is never one to alibi. He takes things as they happen. But, understandably, he must be wondering when things are going to come to a screeching halt. Alco has three games remaining on the schedule, Frederick being met here a week from tomorrow night and then the big date against Fort Hill on Turkey Day. There will be a lot of new faces on the team as Payne is going to have to bring up gridders from the jayvees to replace his ailing players.

Tom Greene, Holy Cross junior quarterback, first picked up grid notices when being "Mr. Everything" at Loyola High in Baltimore four years ago. He climaxed a brilliant football career by being named on the 1954 All-State team.

Now, four years later, he is still continuing to expand his gridiron abilities. According to the latest NCAA statistics the Pikesville signal-caller is leading the nation in total offense. He engineered the 20-19 upset victory by the Crusaders last week over Syracuse and pitched his way to first place in the tightest total offense competition in football history.

Greene passed for 278 yards and ran for minus three against the Orange while scoring two touchdowns and kicking two vital extra points. His coach, Dr. Eddie Anderson, said: "I haven't had one man dominate a game like that in years."

Greene's total is 1,150 yards, of which 1,074 had been gained by passing. He now has a 95-yard margin over the runnerup, Bob Stransky of Colorado, the biggest total offense margin any player has held this season. But it is only 182 yards ahead of

Undefeated Californian Seeks Win, Title Clash

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Boxing followers discover tonight if Tommy (Hurricane) Jackson has dropped from heavyweight title challenger to trial horse within the short space of two fights.

The tireless warrior with the not-too-potent punch battles the No. 1 challenger, undefeated Eddie Machen, in a 12-rounder at the Cow Palace.

It's the first outing for Jackson since July 29 when, as the top-ranked challenger, he was stopped by champion Floyd Patterson in the 10th round. Jackson went to a hospital.

Wants To 'Win Big'

Machen, a 25-year-old from Redding, Calif., is undefeated in 23 bouts. He says he wants to "win big" to gain the right to battle Patterson.

"If I can knock him out, I will," says Eddie. "If not, I'll go for the decision. I'm not going to let desire for a knockout go to my head and throw all caution to the winds."

In-fighting of the boxing game that doesn't go on in the ring influences some of Machen's desire for a big win.

Cus D'Amato, who manages Patterson, has said Machen has forfeited any right to fight the champion. D'Amato feuds with the International Boxing Club and declares Machen's pilot, Sid Flaherty, has IBC associations.

Would Agree To Bout

Although the fight is copromoted by the San Francisco Boxing Club and the IBC, Flaherty says he would agree to a title fight staged by any promoter of D'Amato's choosing. Yet he says he feels it will take public opinion to force a Machen-Patterson bout.

Jackson, of St. Albans, N.Y., has ideas other than that he is being used simply to build up Machen. Hurricane's manager, Lippe Briedbart, asserts the Californian is still a year away.

"He's never fought a fellow in the class of Jackson. After this fight we'll be No. 1 again," says Lippe with Jackson nodding approval.

'Unwanted' Sophs Star For Auburn

AUBURN, Ala. (AP)—Two sophomore linemen no other college wanted as football players are prime factors in unbeaten Auburn's position as the toughest defensive team in the nation and No. 3 in The Associated Press poll.

They are center Jackie Burkett, a 20-year-old speedster from little Shalimar High at Fort Walton Beach, Fla., who has grown into a 215-pound terror as a linebacker, and guard Zeke Smith, whose exploits as a fullback at Uniontown, Ala., High didn't cause any raised eyebrows among college recruiters.

Both Start Every Game

Both have started every Auburn game, and both have been around the top in the number of tackles per game.

Burkett called defensive signals in his first college game against defending champion Tennessee at Knoxville on Sept. 28. He did such a good job the mighty Vols, the pre-season pick for the Southeastern Conference title again, netted only 84 yards in total offense.

He's been calling defensive signals ever since and barring injuries is a cinch to continue that chore for two more years. One pro scout called him the best linebacker in college football.

Makes Key Play

Against a fine Mississippi State team last week, Burkett made the key play in the fourth quarter when he tore through to make it impossible for a State punter to get away a punt from the end zone. The back, Bill Shoenrock, tried to run it out and was tackled for a safety to put Auburn ahead 9-7. Burkett also recovered a fumble and caused another with a bone-crushing tackle.

Smith, a 210-pounder, gets the middle linebacking spot in Auburn's usual defensive alignment. He replaced last year's Earnie Danjean, now a Green Bay middle guard, and Auburn Coaches say there has been no loss of ability at the position.

Neither Burkett nor Smith was offered an SEC grant-in-aid by any other school.

Duke, Clemson Will Collide In Statistics Battle

GREENSBORO, N. C. (AP)—When Duke and Clemson square off at Durham Saturday, it will be the Atlantic Coast Conference's No. 1 statistical battle of the season.

According to latest ACC Service Bureau figures, here's how close the two are in the fact and figure department, listing the ACC leaders:

Total offense — Clemson No. 1 at 309.7 yards a game, Duke second at 299.6.

Rushing offense — Duke No. 1 at 247.9 yards a game, Clemson second at 237.

Pass offense — Virginia No. 1 at 87 yards a game, Clemson No. 2 at 76.7, Duke No. 5 at 51.8.

Total defense — N. C. State No. 1 at 213.4 yards given up per game, Duke No. 2 at 213.5, Clemson No. 3 at 297.3.

Rushing defense — Duke No. 1 at an average yield of 139.1 yards, N. C. State No. 2 at 140.1, Clemson No. 3 at 155.7.

Pass defense — North Carolina No. 1 with an average yield of 49.3 yards, Clemson second at 61.6 yards and Duke No. 6 at 74.4.

Celtics Push Victory Skein To Ten Games

By The Associated Press

The Boston Celtics, playing relaxed under pressure, pushed their winning streak to 10 games last night with a 107-104 victory over the Minneapolis Lakers in a National Basketball Assn. doubleheader in Detroit.

The Celts moved two-thirds of the way toward their goal of matching the record of 15 straight games at the start of a season. The overall is 17 in a row.

Lakers Keep Losing

The winless Lakers kept the league's other streak going. They have lost seven straight games. The record is 15 at the start of the season and also overall.

In the nightcap at Olympia Stadium, the Detroit Pistons won their first victory in their new home town before 6,256 fans. Gene Shue drove for a field goal with three seconds left to edge the New York Knickerbockers 109-107.

Celtics Rally To Win

Boston had to come from behind in the last three minutes and break a 100-199 tie with Minneapolis. Bob Cousy figured in the rally with a field goal and a pair of free throws.

Forward George Yardley pepped up the Pistons' fourth quarter rally by scoring 19 points and finishing the game with 32.

Church Loop Field Increased To 29

The starting field for the 30th-annual Central YMCA Sunday School Basketball League race Saturday has been raised to 29 with three more quints entering the loop yesterday.

Emmanuel Episcopal and Park Place Methodist will meet in the National Division 6:30 p. m., Saturday at Allegany High. First Baptist, the other late entry, has drawn a bye. Seven games will be played at Allegany and on the "Y" boards.

Aggies Versatile Crow Called 'Superman With Padding'

COLLEGE STATION, Tex. (AP)—When John Crow was named Back of the Week in the nation's college football it was no surprise to his coach, Paul Bear Bryant of Texas A&M.

Bryant was already talking about Crow being All-America before this honor was announced and he also declared that "if John Crow doesn't win the Heisman Trophy—whether we win another game or not—they ought to quit giving it."

Best Back In History

The critics already are recognizing Crow as among the greatest backfield men in Southwest Conference history.

Abb Curtis, assistant secretary of the conference and long-time official who played football at Texas back in the twenties, calls Crow the best back since Doak Walker of Southern Methodist (1947-48-49). But he won't compare the two.

"You can't compare them," he says. "One would run over you and the other around you. But they both would beat you and that's what counts."

Crow hasn't played in a game this season that he didn't get credit for winning it or making winning it possible. And his defensive feats have been as great as offensive. In practically every game he has killed the opposition with a pass interception at a crucial point — witness Arkansas and Southern Methodist. Against Texas Christian he "stole" the ball from Dick Finney, the Horned Frog quarterback, who was on the way to a touchdown. And he also intercepted a pass to stop a threatening TCU drive in the last minutes.

Hurt Against Terps

Crow was injured early in the opening game of the season against Maryland and didn't play any more until the fourth game. But in five games he has averaged 90 yards rushing per contest. Most of the big halfback's gains are three, four and five yards—just what's needed—but he can make more when necessary.

Crow got his Back of the Week designation for what he did Saturday night against Southern Methodist—89 yards rushing, 64 yards returning punts and kickoffs, 30 yards returning two intercepted passes, sparked two touchdown drives and made one touchdown himself, kicked an extra point, "killed" an SMU hope by "stealing" the ball from a fellow who was catching it, blocked like a demon and all-in-all played the finest game of the season in the Southwest Conference.

But he had done just about as well the week before against Arkansas when he gained 116 yards, scored the winning touchdown with a 12-yard run and intercepted a pass on the goal line to stop a great Arkansas threat.

Bill Rives, sports editor of the Dallas Morning News, wrote that Crow was "Superman with shoulder pads."

White Again Week's Back

RALEIGH, N. C. (AP)—It's getting to be a habit with Clemson quarterback Harvey White.

White was named today, for the third straight week, the Atlantic Coast Conference Sophomore of the Week.

Last week he made a fine showing in Clemson's 26-7 win over Maryland. He won in previous weeks for performances against South Carolina and Rice.

A 200-pounder from Greenwood, S. C., White quarterbacked three of the touchdowns in the win over Maryland. The first score came on a 65-yard pass play to end Whitey Jordan. Another came on a 20-yard screen pass to halfback Bill Mathis, and he engineered a four-play, 55-yard drive for another score.

In all, White completed four of seven passes for 88 yards and two touchdowns, returned one kickoff 21 yards and kicked one extra point.

Americans End Mexican Streak In Horse Show

NEW YORK—(INS)—The domination by Mexico and Gen. Humberto Mariles of the National Horse Show has been broken by the United States and Hugh Wiley of Towson, Md.

When the 69th annual show drew to a close last night at Madison Square Garden, the U. S. team had captured the perpetual Challenge trophy and the team title for the first time since 1950. Mexico won it the last three years in a row.

The Challenge trophy victory was achieved when Wiley, Billy Steinkraus of Westport, Conn., and Frank Chapot of Wallpack, N. J., turned in two sets of perfect rides.

The triumph gave the U. S. team a show total of 120 points. Britain was second with 106, trailed by Ireland (69), Mexico (21) and Argentina (19).

Wiley's performance permitted him to edge out Britain's Ted Williams for the National Horse Show trophy, emblematic of individual honors. Wiley had 59 points to Williams' 57. Steinkraus was third with 41.

Leahy Believes Irish Could Top Sooners Saturday

TULSA, Okla. (AP)—Frank Leahy, former football coach at Notre Dame, believes the Fighting Irish have the potential this season of beating any team on a given day—including Oklahoma this Saturday at Norman.

Leahy spoke at the Magic Empire Sports Club dinner here last night. He praised Oklahoma and its coaching staff and said of the nation's No. 2 team:

"It is just coming into its own now. Coach 'Bud' Wilkinson always develops them late in the season."

Of last season's 40-0 beating inflicted by the Sooners on the Irish at South Bend, Leahy said, "It could have been 65-0."

Asked how Oklahoma, victorious in 47 straight games, would fare in Big 10 competition, the former Notre Dame coach said:

"Oklahoma might not have as good a record but it definitely would be up among the top three every year in either the Big 10 or the Southwest Conference. I know Bud and his staff would prefer a tougher schedule."

The winning team will gain ____ (number) yards by rushing

The winning team will gain ____ (number) yards by passing

Name: .....

Address: .....

Predictions of yards gained by passing and rushing by winning team will be only used in case of tie (where two or more persons submit the correct prediction of the final score).

Clip, fill in blanks, and mail, or take to: Cumberland Brewing Co., 711 N. Centre St., Cumberland, Md.

OLD EXPORT CONTEST RULES

(In case of a tie game, no prize will be awarded. The $100. prize for that week will be added to the following week's prize.)

1. Enter your prediction of the final score in the appropriate boxes of the Official Entry Blank. Also enter your predictions of the yardage which will be gained by passing and by rushing by the winning team. Predictions of the yardage gained by rushing and passing by the winning team will only be used in cases where two or more people submit the correct final score of the game.

2. Contestants may submit as many entries as they wish, but each entry must be submitted on an Official Entry Blank. Contestants may use entry blanks appearing in the Wednesday issues of the Cumberland News and Cumberland Times, or may obtain entry blanks free of charge at retail establishments in Allegany and Garrett Counties, Md., selling Old Export beer.

3. Mail your entry or deliver it to: Cumberland Brewing Co., 711 N. Centre St., Cumberland, Md. Entries, if mailed, must be postmarked by midnight of the Friday before the game; if delivered to the brewery, they must arrive by 5:00 p.m. of the Friday before the game.

4. Do not erase or write over your entry. Entries containing erasures will be disqualified.

5. The contest sponsor will not be responsible for nonreceipt of entries lost enroute or otherwise.

6. The Old Export Game-of-the-Week Contest is open to all citizens of Allegany and Garrett Counties, Md., over 21 years of age, except (a) employees of the Cumberland Brewing Co. and their families, (b) employees of their advertising agency and their families, (c) holders of alcoholic beverage licenses and their families, and (d) licensees' employees and their families. State laws of West Virginia and Pennsylvania will not permit participation by residents of these states.

7. The contest prize for the correct prediction of the final score of the Old Export Game-of-the-Week will be $100.00 in cash. In case of a tie, the entrant submitting the correct prediction of the score and the closest prediction of the yards gained by rushing by the winning team will be awarded the prize. In case there is still a tie, the entrant submitting the correct prediction of the score, the closest prediction of the yards gained by rushing by the winning team, and the closest prediction of the yards gained by passing by the winning team will be awarded the prize. If no one predicts the correct score, the prize money will be added to the prize for the next week's contest.

8. The figures for yards gained by rushing and yards gained by passing by the winning team will be taken from Associated Press reports of the game.

9. Decisions of the judges will in all cases be final. The contest judges are Mr. C. V. Burns, Sports Editor, Cumberland News, and Mr. Suter Kegg, Sports Editor, Cumberland Times.

10. Winners will be notified by mail.

THE PLAY'S THE THING

Lane Faces Big Job In Rebuilding Tribe

CLEVELAND —An explosive 61-year-old baseball executive with a reputation for shrewd trading is faced today with making pennant contenders of the Cleveland Indians—and filling spacious Municipal Stadium with fans who will pay to see them play.

Frank Lane, appointed general manager of the Indians yesterday, arrived in Cleveland last night. Lane left St. Louis and his job as Cardinal's General Manager to succeed fired Hank Greenberg.

Wants To Get Acquainted

Lane said he wanted to get acquainted with the team and talk things over with Bobby Bragan, Tribe field manager, before commenting on any possible trades.

He did mention, however, that "from a distance" the Indians looked as if they needed help around second base. He said he talked with John McHale, general manager of the Detroit Tigers, by telephone in St. Louis yesterday. Shortstop Harvey Kuenn, who spent part of last season at third base for Detroit, was discussed.

Dwindling attendance, which more than anything led to the ouster of Greenberg, was because the "baseball spirit was lying dormant in Cleveland," Lane said.

Big Stadium Appeals

"That big Cleveland stadium appeals to me. So does the demonstrated enthusiasm of Cleveland people for baseball. They've showed it before and if I do my job properly they'll show it again."

The Indians dropped to sixth place last season after 10 years as a first division baseball club. Attendance fell from a major league record of 2,383,026 in 1948 to 722,256 during the past season.

Keller Chosen For State's Hall Of Fame

BALTIMORE (AP)— Four Maryland sports stars of past years were given places last night in the Maryland Athletic Hall of Fame sponsored by the M Club of Maryland.

The 10-man committee headed by Joseph Deckman of Washington selected Charlie Keller, ex-New York Yankee baseball great; Jake Slagle, all-America back for Princeton in 1924-25, and Theodore Strauss and Mickey Whitehurst, trackmen from Baltimore at the turn of the century.

They will be formally enshrined in the Maryland Athletic Hall of Fame at an M Club banquet in Washington Dec. 14.

Others previously selected include Babe Ruth, Robert (Lefty) Grove, Jimmy Foxx and Frank (Home Run) Baker, of baseball fame; Robert Garrett, a trackman; Ned Duvall, St. Johns College football star; Vince Dundee, a boxer, and H. C. (Curly) Byrd, former University of Maryland president, for football, baseball and track.

Ruth, Dundee and Whitehurst are dead.

There are 865,603 members in the Women's International Bowling Congress.

Minoso Swap 'Responsible' As Lane Succeeds Greenberg

By JOHN BARRINGTON
INS Sports Editor

NEW YORK—(INS)—There is a twist of irony to the Cleveland Indians' hiring of Frank Lane as general manager, although his predecessor, Hank Greenberg, probably won't see the joke. It was Lane, in a sense, who put the skids under the Indians and Greenberg—or at least gave them a sturdy push down the toboggan slide—by engineering the Minnie Minoso deal.

That trade, back in 1951, became the focal point of Cleveland fans' criticism throughout the stormy Greenberg regime. When they started ticking off evidence to support the charge that Hank made bad deals, it was 100 chances to one they'd start off with the Minoso transaction.

One of Lane's Best

Actually, the deal was one of Lane's best, and one of the ones of which he was the proudest. Not only did it bring Minnie to the White Sox, but it was vastly complicated—a challenge to Lane's devious mental processes.

He is supposed to have spent the better part of 30 hours constantly on the telephone arranging the three-cornered shuffle among the Indians, the Philadelphia Athletics and his own White Sox.

The White Sox sent outfielders Dave Philley and Gus Zernial to Philadelphia. The Athletics contributed Lou Brissie to the Indians and Paul Lehner to Chicago. The Indians, in addition to transferring Minoso to the Sox, sent catcher Ray Murray and relief pitcher Sam Zoldak to the A's.

Lifetime .307 Mark

It is doubtful that Lane set out to hornswoggle the Indians, but Minoso turned out to be far and away the prize in the package. He has a lifetime .307 average for the White Sox and missed the All-Star team only twice in his seven seasons. His first three years, while the deal rankled freshly in Cleveland hearts, he led the league in solen bases.

Meanwhile, the Indians, who desperately needed solid hitting and base-running speed, got little help from pitcher Brissie, a wartime Purple Heart veteran, who had 23 operations on his left leg and wore a brace on it. Brissie had been a standout with the A's, but Al Lopez could find little employment for him on an already over-stocked Cleveland staff.

Only Minoso, Zernial and Philley of all the players involved in that (from a Cleveland standpoint) ill-fated deal still are active in the majors. But bitter memories linger on in Cleveland.

Now the wheel has come full circle as it often does in baseball. Frank Lane, who inadvertently had a lot to do with tearing down the Indian teepee, has been asked to build it up again.

'Bing' Devine Succeeds Lane At Card Post

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Youthful Vaughan (Bing) Devine moves in as general manager of the St. Louis Cardinals and becomes possibly the only general manager in baseball who works on a month-to-month basis.

Devine is only 40 but he's been a Cardinal front office man for 18 years. His most recent job has been executive assistant to General Manager Frank Lane.

Lane Recommends 'Bing'

Lane's last act before resigning yesterday to become general manager of the Cleveland Indians was to recommend Devine as his successor.

August A. Busch, president and owner of the Cardinals, took the advice. He called a press conference and announced Devine's appointment three hours after Lane suddenly bowed out.

"I won't believe all this until I'm sure I'm awake," said Devine. "I'm afraid I'm dreaming."

The new general manager's salary was said to be $30,000 a year.

Busch took the occasion to announce a new policy: From now on only the field manager will work under contract — a one-year contract — and the other members of the managerial team will be on a month-to-month basis.

Makes No Difference

Devine told reporters that will make no difference to him — it's the same way he's been working since he first joined the Cardinals as a publicity man in 1938.

He once aspired to be a major league baseball player and for a time pitched batting practice for the Cards.

Devine said he'll be less flamboyant than Lane.

"I tend to be more conservative about deals than Lane," he said, "But this is no criticism of Lane.

"I'm extremely optimistic about the club. Sometimes I know you can be optimistic to a fault, but I think with some improvement we can have a fine team."

Bell Rings 558 Liquor Dux Set

Lou Bell knocked over 234 pins for high game and marked up a sizzling 558 set but it wasn't enough to save second-place Spa Bar from dropping one of three games to Burke's Tavern in the South End Liquor Dealers Bowling League.

Wonder Bar took advantage of the situation by sweeping Frank's team and increasing its lead to two games. Lynn & Racey also won by shutout, defeating King's Tavern. All of the matches were rolled on the Capital pinways.

Tom Dentinger of Lynn & Racey had the only other 500 set, finishing with 187-534. Other leading rollers were Dick Bittner, 178-478, Burke's; Joe Grimm, 178-460, Wonder Bar; A. Drew, 164 and Buck Gephart, 432, Frank's; and Nellie Nelson, 166 and Sirbaugh, 337, King's. Standings:

Deadlock Broken In Savoy League

Savoy captured two games from Diamonds to break the deadlock for first place in the Savoy Ladies Bowling League and dumped the Diamonds into second place, one game off the pace.

Third-place Queen City also lost two games, falling victim to Benders.

The lone shutout of the week was rolled by Majestics in its three-to-nothing conquest of cellar-dwelling Crystals.

Team leaders were Lyle Aaron, 133, Millie Frankfort, 317, Savoy; Flo Sarver, 142-359, Diamonds; Helen Isner, 195-451, Majestics; Edith Harclerode, 128-336, Crystals; Walburga Schute, 145, Dorothy Holmes, 364, Benders; Lona Crabtree, 132, Marie Frankfort, 305, Queen City. Standings:

ROLLING HIS OWN — It was Operation Big Sleep for Tom Baird, Jr., 35, after bowling 286½ games in 65 hours at Middletown, O. Taking 10-minute-every-hour coffee breaks, Baird bested the mark of 280 games set recently by Bob Rosburg in Oregon.

BobcatBooters Snare Finale

Scoring three goals in the first period and another in the second, Frostburg State Teachers College booters wound up their soccer season yesterday with a 4-0 shutout over American University at Washington. The win snapped a five-game losing streak for coach Ken Babcock's charges and enabled them to wind up with a 3-5 mark for the campaign.

The Bobcats got first-period goals by Ed McCormick with 2:27 gone, a second by John Horine after 9:30 and the third by Howard "Sonny" Gilpin with two minutes to go. John Johnson applied the final tally with 20 seconds in the second period left on a shot from 30 yards out.

The Bobcats were knocking at the goal all afternoon, taking a total of 21 shots, 17 of which were stopped by Goalie Tonkin. Ed Truly, who tended goal for Frostburg until the last five minutes of play, made eight saves at the uprights. The winners had six corner kicks and American University had one.

John Keister, center halfback, and McCormick and Horine were outstanding for the Bobcats.

McCarthy Sues Owen In $250,000 Suit

NEW YORK — (INS) — Famed sportscaster Clem McCarthy is suing an advertising man for $250,000, claiming an auto mishap has "doomed" him to spend the rest of his life in a wheelchair.

The 75-year-old announcer named advertising man Edward J. C. Owen as defendant.

The suit, filed in New York State Supreme Court yesterday, claims that McCarthy was a passenger in a car driven by Owen when the auto hit a pole in the Bronx last May 4 after Owen allegedly "fell asleep" at the wheel.

McCarthy, who suffered hip and leg fractures, is in Mt. Sinai Hospital in New York.

Virginia Will Show Respect For Carolina

By The Associated Press

"We've got the greatest respect for South Carolina. Our scouts tell us they're a lot better than the record shows — that a few mistakes have cost them heavily."

That's Virginia Coach Ben Martin's attitude as he prepares his Cavaliers for an Atlantic Coast Conference football game with South Carolina Saturday at Charlottesville, Va.

Last weekend, Virginia was idle and South Carolina lost to North Carolina 28-6.

Gamecock Coach Warren Giese reported yesterday that almost all his squad has recovered from a flu attack and was back in action. The team viewed movies of Virginia games and staged a snappy scrimmage. Martin, meanwhile, worked on the Cavaliers' passing and staged a defensive drill.

Elsewhere around the ACC yesterday:

Duke held a two-hour workout and stepped up preparations for meeting Clemson, the ACC's only other conference game this weekend. Blocking the goal line drills got the emphasis.

Clemson's workout featured defense as Coach Frank Howard alternated his first three units in a scrimmage against reserves.

North Carolina State, going against Virginia Tech this weekend, went through a defensive scrimmage.

Wake Forest held an offensive scrimmage as the winless Demon Deacons prepared for a tough West Virginia.

North Carolina took the day off because of an open date this weekend.

Dispatchers Add To Railway Lead

Dispatchers added to their lead and Streamliners dropped into a second-place tie with Signals as a result of this week's Western Maryland Railway General Office Mixed Bowling League action on the Capitol alleys.

The Dispatchers took two from Anglebars. Reefers shut out Streamliners, Signals blanked Cross Ties and Hoppers downed Frogs, 2-1.

Leading scorers were Jack Barmoy, 180-410 and Hilda Lewis, 129-335, Dispatchers; Charley Diehl, 177-464 and Rose Marie Friend, 130-338, Anglebars; Prentiss Parsons, 138-368 and Bea Bloss, 145-303, Reefers; Mel Wright, 148-395 and Elizabeth Miller, 134-311, Streamliners; Ray Long, 168-449 and Gladys Head, 107-222, Signals; Jim Bloss, 139-376 and Rebecca Brotemarkle, 112-320, Cross Ties; Tom Head, 155-383 and Bertha Kerens, 126-312, Hoppers; and Jack Shriver, 160-378 and Wilda Parsons, 133-320, Frogs. Standings:

Sooners, Aggies, Miami Seen Winning By Claassen

By HAROLD CLAASSEN

NEW YORK (AP)—Traditional games dot the college football map. But background means little in picking the winners. Getting the right backfield would be a much bigger help. So, off we go:

Texas A&M over Rice: Bear Bryant's Aggies are No. 1 in the nation. Rice is only second best in the Southwest Conference.

Oklahoma over Notre Dame: In belief that the Sooners have recovered from their midseason siesta. You can see for yourself on your TV screen.

Auburn over Georgia: The Auburn defense is one of the best.

Hawkeyes To Lose

Ohio State over Iowa: In the past 10 years the home team always has won in this crucial series. The Buckeyes do the entertaining this time and hope to clinch the Rose Bowl bid.

Michigan State over Minnesota: This could be closer than it looks if the Spartans spend too much time remembering their Notre Dame victory and if Bobby Cox is back to normal.

Tennessee over Mississippi: Everything is at stake here—the Sugar Bowl bid for a possible Southeastern Conference title. Mississippi hasn't won from Tennessee since 1948.

Army over Tulane: Bob Anderson to do some more galloping. The game has been switched to West Point.

Duke Has 'Too Much'

Duke over Clemson: Clemson has Harvey White but Duke has too much of everything else.

Oregon over Southern California: By about a touchdown.

Texas Christian over Texas: TCU rested last week while Texas was being dumped out of the Cotton Bowl picture in a 6-6 draw with Baylor.

FRIDAY

Miami over Maryland (N)

SATURDAY

EAST: Princeton over Yale. Pennsylvania over Columbia; Dartmouth over Cornell, Boston College over Marquette, Brown over Harvard, Syracuse over Colgate, Penn State over Holy Cross.

SOUTH: Georgia Tech over Alabama; Navy over George Washington, Florida over Vanderbilt, Furman over Chattanooga, Kentucky over Xavier, North Carolina State over Virginia Tech, Virginia over South Carolina, West Virginia over Wake Forest, William & Mary over Rutgers, Mississippi Southern over Florida State, Louisiana State over Mississippi State, VMI over The Citadel.

MIDWEST: Detroit over Quantico Marines, Iowa State over South Dakota, Oklahoma State over Kansas, Missouri over Kansas State, Colorado over Nebraska, Purdue over Northwestern, Cincinnati over Tulsa, Houston over Wichita, West Texas State over Drake, Wisconsin over Illinois, Michigan over Indiana.

—Bill Hartack, leading jockey for the third straight year, piloted his Hialeah mounts to a record $515,820 in purses during the 1957 meeting. He set a mark by riding 62 winners.

VMI Aiming For Best Year Since 1920

By The Associated Press

Coach John McKenna and his VMI football team are beginning to discover that an unbeaten record has its drawbacks as well as its advantages.

Neither McKenna nor his players, of course, would swap VMI's handsome 7-0-1 record for any in the Southern Conference. But sometimes they'd prefer that everybody, for the moment, forget all about it.

Must Fight Tension

Like any all-winning coach, McKenna is having to fight tension on his squad as the 1957 season draws toward its close. The Keydets have a lot at stake in their last two games — this Saturday night against The Citadel at Lynchburg, Thanksgiving Day against arch-rival Virginia Tech at Roanoke.

Specifically, what's at stake is the Southern Conference championship . . . VMI's first unbeaten season since 1920 . . . a possible bowl bid. Only by winning their last two games — and remaining undefeated — can the Keydets assure themselves the first two objectives, and probably the third as well.

The possibility of a bowl bid came into the open for the first time yesterday when VMI was listed as one of 12 teams — another was conference champion West Virginia — under consideration for the Cigar Bowl at Tampa Dec. 28.

"That's a compliment," said McKenna, who has discouraged all talk of bowl bids previously. "Sure, we're interested. We'd be in fast company there. But everything is contingent on how we do in our next two games."

Hold Lengthy Drill

In preparation for The Citadel, the Keydets yesterday held a lengthy practice that lasted until after dark, concentrating on defense and extra-point kicking.

The Citadel, meantime, also held a long session with the first and second units scrimmaging against each other for more than an hour.

West Virginia drilled lightly for its Saturday date at Wake Forest. Furman held a rough scrimmage in preparation for its homecoming game with Chattanooga. Davidson concentrated on defense against Richmond plays, then turned to polishing its offense at the Wildcats' drills.

William & Mary held a heavy workout for Saturday's Rutgers game. Virginia Tech was at near peak strength as the Techmen held an hour-long scrimmage for its meeting with powerful N. C. State.

'Ruler' Cinch To Win Title Of 3-Year-Old

BALTIMORE — Wheatley Stable's amazingly swift Bold Ruler today appeared a cinch to become the 13th Preakness winner voted the nation's three-year old racing championship.

The colt trained by Sunny Jim Fitzsimmons was all but fitted for the crown last Saturday when he easily vanquished the favored Gallant Man and Round Table in the $75,000 Trenton Handicap at Garden State Park in near-record time.

Leading from wire to wire for the full 10 furlongs, a distance his critics said he could not handle, Bold Ruler racked up his 11th victory of 16 starts and boosted his earnings this year to $415,160. He has now won the Trenton, Ben Franklin, Queens County, Vosburgh and Jerome Handicaps, under weight from 130 to 136 pounds, plus the Preakness, Wood Memorial, Flamingo and Bahamas Stakes—a total of nine stakes raecs.

Finishing as far back as fourth only once this semester, Bold Ruler has set a seven-furlong track record in the Vosburgh Handicap at Belmont, cracked Hialeah's nine-furlong record in the Flamingo and shattered Jamaica's nine-furlong mark in the Wood Memorial.

Bold Ruler had defeated Gallant Man in the Bahamas and Wood Memorial prior to his smashing triumph in the Trenton. Gallant Man had beaten Bold Ruler only in the Belmont Stakes, though on two other occasions he finished ahead of the Wheatley Stable colt in races which neither won. Bold Ruler's margin over Round Table in the Trenton was nearly 11 lengths while the only other time they met was in the Kentucky Derby won by Iron Liege.

All of this adds up to what looks like a winning margin for Bold Ruler in the voting for racing's divisional championships which will be conducted later this month. It would continue a trend that has become almost habit since balloting began in 1936. Twelve of the 21 sophomore champs in between have been the winners of the Preakness.

Iowa, Bucks In Climactic Big Ten Fray

By DICK DUNKEL

DAYTONA BEACH, Fla. — (Special) — Iowa and Ohio State hook up Saturday at Columbus in the climactic game of the Big Ten's hottest campaign in years. And they rate within 1.9 points of each other.

The undefeated Hawkeyes, who want this one in order to perpetuate their league championship, now stand third in the Power Index standing, with 109.9. A whisker behind, at 108.0, are the upsurging Buckeyes who pant for a Rose Bowl visa.

Although the past performance averages indicate the tightest sort of contest ,a big win for either Ohio or Iowa could easily vault the victor into the national No. 1 spot. Oklahoma and Michigan State now top them by tiny margins.

Saturday's prospects for other national leaders are shown by the following rating differences, or pars, which the teams have set for themselves. If they do better than par their ratings increase, and vice versa.

No. 1 Oklahoma, 17 over Notre Dame.

No. 2 Mich. State, 14 over Minnesota.

No. 5 Auburn, 21 over Georgia.

No. 6 Texas A & M, 7 over Rice.

No. 7 Michigan, 37 over Indiana.

No. 8 Purdue, 20 over Northwestern.

No. 9 Tennessee, 1 over Mississippi.

No. 10 Wisconsin, even with No. 11 Illinois.

The higher rating team has won in 77.3 per cent of the 1,512 games, not counting ties, which the Power Index has covered so far this season. Ratings are based on the combination of average scoring margin with average rating of opposition.

Pars for other big games of the weekend:

Friday Night

Miami, Fla., 13 over Maryland.

Saturday

EAST — Navy 36 over G. Washington, Penn State 5 over Holy Cross, Boston College 24 over Marquette, Dartmouth 16 over Cornell, Syracuse 20 over Colgate.

MIDWEST — Missouri 10 over Kansas State, Colorado 18 over Nebraska, Okla. State 9 over Kansas.

SOUTH — Army 21 over Tulane, Arkansas, 2 over SMU, Clemson even with Duke, Florida 8 over Vanderbilt, Texas 2 over TCU, Miss.. State 3 over LSU, Ga. Tech 16 over Alabama, N. C. State 20 over Va. Tech, West Virginia 17 over Wake Forest, S. Carolina 1 over Virginia.

FAR WEST — Stanford 3 over Oregon State, UCLA 18 over COP, Oregon 7 over So. California, California 1 over Washington.

State's Burkett Top Lineman

By The Associated Press

For making the key play against Mississippi State that kept Auburn in the unbeaten and untied class, sophomore center Jackie Burkett was named the Lineman of the Week today.

You may recall the situation at Birmingham last Saturday. State and Auburn were tied 7-7 in the last quarter. State had the ball deep in its own territory and Bill Schoenrock dropped back to punt from his end zone.

Burkett, a 6-4, 215-pounder broke through to make it impossible for Schoenrock to get off the kick. When he tried to run with the ball he was nailed by Burkett and Auburn end John Whatley for a safety. That put Auburn ahead 9-7 and provided the winning points in the Tigers' eventual 15-7 victory.

Hugh (Bones) Taylor, former star with the Washington Redskins, is assistant football coach at Florida State.

Day In Sports

Rice's King Hill in tenth place.

This is the first time since the NCAA statisticians set up shop 21 years ago that the top ten have been blanketed within 200 yards this late in the season.

Although he has only two lettermen returning, coach Dick Clower, starting his second year as head basketball coach of Western Maryland College, is well pleased with his early drills and feels that this year's quint will show improvement over the 1956-57 club.

Dick, a 1947 graduate of Allegany High where he was quarterback in football and also a member of the track team, has the second leading scorer of the Mason-Dixon Conference available in junior Sloan Stewart along with senior Tony Sarbanes as his nucleus.

Much will depend on the crop of freshmen with one of the eagers being counted upon a former star for Allegany the past two seasons before being graduated this spring. That would be Jim Deremer, sparkplug guard of the Camper quints, and rated a good prospect due to his all-round generalship on the court.

Three returning lettermen are due to report after the conclusion of football, one being Dick Holbruner, ex-Martinsburg floor ace.

Browns Find Combination That May Bring Crown

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The Cleveland Browns apparently have found the quarterback-fullback combination that spells championship.

When Coach Paul Brown's teams were burning up the National Football League, they had peerless Otto Graham at quarterback and hard running Marion Motley at fullback. Now the Browns have Tommy O'Connell and Jimmy Brown.

Brown Near Top

The latest NFL statistics show O'Connell as the leading passer and Brown only 38 yards from being the pro's top ground gainer.

O'Connell, former Illinois great, completed 7 of 11 passes last Sunday for the Eastern Conference leading Browns to supplant little Eddie LeBaron of Washington as the No. 1 passer. O'Connell now has completed 42 of 70 for 703 yards, 5 TDs and a 9.27 average of 10.4 yards per try.

LeBaron, who led the passers for the past four weeks, dropped to second, with 57 of 94 for 871 yards, 7 TDs and a 9.27 average. Each has had 5 passes intercepted. Johnny Unitas of Baltimore ranks third with 90 of 157, 1,285 yards, 17 TD passes and an 8.18 average.

Wilson Being Pressed

Tommy Wilson still leads the ball carriers but the Los Angeles star is being pressed for the first time in weeks by the irrepressible Brown of the Browns. Wilson has gained 501 yards on 99 carries, a 5.1 average, while Brown has 464 yards on 115 attempts, a 4 yard norm.

Other departmental leaders:

Pass receiving—Jack McClairen, Pittsburgh, 31 for 397 yards.

Scoring—George Blanda of the Chicago Bears has 48 points on 1 TD, 15 conversions and 9 field goals. Ollie Matson of the Chicago Cards, and Jim Mutscheller, Baltimore, are tied for second with 42 points — each on 7 TDs.

Punt returns — Joe Scudero, Washington, is tops with a 9.3 average.

Yank Helps Avert Shutout By Reds

TEHRAN — (INS) — Except for Tommy Kono of Sacramento, Calif., Russia would have swept the 1957 world weightlifting championships.

Kono's victory in the middleweight competition was the only triumph scored by a non-Russian. The Soviet Union took the other six titles.

City Cage Loop Meets, Three Teams Sought

At least three more quints are needed to make up the City Basketball League, sponsored by the Rec Department, with a meeting of teams interested slated for today, 8 p. m., at the City Hall.

Three quints have joined the circuit with Moose, K of C, Forty & Eight already accepted. Five others have signified an interest. League play will start around the first of next month.

Diamonds Romp In Bando League

Diamonds rolled a shutout against second-place Hearts in the former's attempt to make the B & O Mixed Bowling League a runaway affair. The leaders now show a 19-5 record with every other team in the league under the .500 mark.

In the league's other match, Clubs carded a 2-1 victory over Spades.

Individual honors went to Jack Perkins, 171-433, Barbara Sarver, 134-332, Diamonds; Herb Sarver, 174-449, Lois Deter, 87-253, Clubs; Bill Sheetz, 136-379, Wimp Wagner, 80, Polly Perkins, 221, Hearts; Bill Wagner, 152, Don Lewis, 448, Lois Rowan, 97-252, Spades. Standings:

Estimate On New Factory Is $94,000

FROSTBURG — The Frostburg Industrial Development Company was informed last night that a new undergarment factory to be erected here will cost $94,000, of which area residents have pledged $70,000.

Frank Benn and Maurice Milberg of the Cumberland Undergarment Company also stated that specifications were drawn up yesterday with the Sensabaugh Contracting Company and have been forwarded to New York for approval of the parent company. The contract is expected back by Tuesday, at which time another meeting of company officials and the local industrial group will be held at City Hall to report on progress of work and signing of the contract.

Howard Shuman, chairman of the Frostburg Industrial Development Company, reported this morning that all pledges are needed immediately in order to purchase materials and pay the contractor so that the factory can be completed in a minimum of time, and before severe winter weather sets in.

Milberg and Benn, in pointing out the cost of the building, said their company would invest the difference of the original estimate of $70,000.

Keyser High PTA Program Planned Tomorrow Night

KEYSER—Education Week in Keyser High School, will be observed by Parent - Teacher Association tomorrow at the school. The general theme, "An Educated People Moves Freedom Forward," has been adapted for use in classrooms.

The PTA will conduct open house at 7 p.m., and faculty and PTA members will have individual and separate brief meetings. Homeroom mothers will have a part in the evening's program. The general PTA meeting will be held in the auditorium at 8:15, at which time a short program will be presented by the Honor Society on American Education.

The Thespians will have a noon session and luncheon tomorrow.

Friday is set aside for extra homeroom activities, to be held during the second period. In addition the following clubs will hold meetings: Hi-Y, Tri-Hi-Y, Future Homemakers, Future Business, Library Junior Tri-Hi-Y and Majets. The Thespians will have a formal initiation in the auditorium at 7:30 p.m.

Fund Launched

At the recent meeting of parents of the Potomac State College student body on the campus, Mrs. W. K. Schoonover, Arlington, Va., made a surprise suggestion in which she proposed the founding of a Parents Fund for a scholarship to be awarded annually at the college.

Mrs. Schoonover started the fund by making a donation, and within a few minutes the sum of $143.50 was submitted as a start. It will be known as the "Parent's Fund."

The meeting of parents was an enthusiastic gathering and the topic concerned the future of students at the local college. There were 350 parents present during the day's activities.

Mineral Area Will Receive C&P Grants

KEYSER — The Cheasapeake and Potomac Telephone Company of West Virginia's Board of Directors has approved an expenditure of over $42,000 for service improvements in the Keyser exchange, and $67,000 for the Piedmont area, according to an announcement by I. F. Anderson, manager of the company's local office.

Anderson pointed out that the allocations provide for additional dial central office equipment needed to convert to the modern two-letter five-digit numbering system. In addition, the grants will provide new subscriber lines needed to keep abreast of the continued expansion in this area. He further pointed out that this new equipment will be of the latest type and will provide Keyser with one of West Virginia's most modern and efficient telephone systems.

He stated that these grants are a part of over $570,000 which the board of directors authorized for expansion and service improvements throughout the state this month.

PARENTS' NIGHT PLANNED—The Bruce High School band of Westernport is shown rehearsing for the Parents' Night program which will be held tomorrow at 8 p. m. in the school auditorium. The band will present several selections, according to Director William Simpson. Prior to the program, parents will visit teachers in their classrooms.

Pastor Takes Over Duties

OAKLAND—Dr. C. P. Anderson of Petersburg, Va., has accepted a call to become pastor of the Deep Creek Baptist Church. He assumes the position left vacant by the death of Dr. Paul S. Parker several months ago.

Dr. Anderson, a native of Halifax County, Va., is a graduate of the University of Richmond. He holds the degree of Master of Theology and the degree of Philosophy from the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary.

He served pastorates at Fulton Baptist Church in Richmond, now the Montrose Baptist, for 12 years, and the Elm Street Baptist Church in Petersburg for 11 years. At each place much work was accomplished. Dr. and Mrs. Anderson have placed emphasis on young people's work, and while in Petersburg the church led the state in Bible drill work, having had six state winners and one south-wide winner.

Recently Dr. Anderson has been doing supply preaching and evangelistic work.

While in Petersburg Dr. Anderson served as president of the Baptist Pastors' conference of the area and also served as chairman of various committees of the association.

Mrs. Anderson is a graduate of Westhampton College, University of Richmond and holds the degree of Master of Religious Education from Carver School of Missions and Social Work at Louisville, Ky. She was training union director of the Petersburg Baptist Association for eight years and served on the advisory board of the department. She also served at assistant WMU leader of the Love Group of the Petersburg Baptist Association.

Boy Scouts To Collect Food For Distribution Nov. 23

PIEDMONT — Saturday, November 23, has been set as the date for the annual collection of non-perishable food to be distributed by the United Organizations at Christmas time or as needed throughout the coming winter. The collection will be held in the Tri-Towns, Beryl and Bloomington, beginning at 10 a. m.

Alton Fortney, chairman of Scout activities for the Tri-Towns, will have charge of the collection which will be made by the Boy and Girl Scouts. The Scouts will also work in the store room in the Walker building, receiving and arranging the food on the shelves.

Plans for the annual food pick-up were made at a recent meeting of the United Organizations.

Mrs. Charles Hood reported that a supply of home furnishings had been given to a Midland family whose home was recently destroyed by fire.

Arrangements were made to employ a man to put up racks in the room in the Union building so that clothing which was moved there can be sorted and arranged.

An unemployed man was also hired to clean a room in the Union hall which will be used as an office for the United Organizations.

A part-time secretary will be employed to do the office work and to interview the applicants for food, clothing or other aid.

Boy and Girl Scouts will be invited to bring usable toys to the Christmas parties December 5 and 6. These will be turned over to the United Organizations.

The United Organizations will meet Thursday, November 21, to make plans for its Christmas activities.

Fire Claims Child's Life

TERRA ALTA—A fire on Stemple Ridge, near Aurora, Monday afternoon took the life of a four-month-old child, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Teter.

According to a statement to those who went to the family's aid, Mrs. Teter had gone to the home of her father-in-law nearby and during her absence an overheated stove ignited the house. Mrs. Teter had taken a second child, Charles Wayne, 3, with her, but had left the baby, Maxine Louise, in bed at home.

Mrs. Teter and the elder Teter made several attempts to enter the burning dwelling, but the flames and smoke held them at bay. The house was a total loss.

The child was born last June 28. Surviving are the parents, Charles Hurley and Nancy Lee (Baker) Teter and the brother.

Stemple Ridge is in an isolated section of Preston County and has no fire protection.

Vote Machine Controversy Settled In Garrett County

OAKLAND — Controversy over voting machines for Garrett County was settled with the recent arrival of 36 manually operated devices from the Automatic Voting Machine Company of Jamestown, N. Y. These machines were ordered by the election board at a cost of $1,518 each for a total of $54,648.

Last year, the voting machines were the subject of controversy with two members of the county commissioners and one member of the election board voting for the Shoup apparatus, the lowest in price. Two members of the election board and one county commissioner voted for the Automatic machine.

Since that time there has been a new election board appointed and the law governing the purchase of the election machines was changed to read "The Board of Supervisors of Elections in the several political sub-divisions shall use the powers conferred upon them for the acquisition of voting machines, and shall acquire or have available the necessary number of voting machines for use at all elections. The County Commissioners, jointly, vide for the payment of such machines."

The law previously had given the power of purchase to the election board and the Board of County Commisisoner, jointly.

The new machines are now being stored in the building formerly used by the Dusic Produce Company. Demonstrations on their operation and use will be held in various parts of the county.

Rotary Club Meeting Held At Frostburg

FROSTBURG — Dr. W. W. Black, member of the faculty at State Teachers College in the history and government department, spoke at Monday night's meeting of the Frostburg Rotary Club in Zion United Church of Christ. His subject was "Why the United Nations Is Failing."

Dr. Black pointed out that the most successful department of the UN to date has been UNESCO, which has dealt with the social and economic problems of the world.

However, he said, three basic powers which a government must have to remain in power are missing in the UN; the power to tax in order to raise funds to operate, the power to regulate commerce and the power to coerce or demand obedience to decision. The United Nations have none of these and the United States pays one third of the expense of the UN, although it has only 82 members.

In closing, he said the main thing that has kept the peace since World War II is "the fear of retaliation," should some great power start another conflict.

Ralph M. Race will be program chairman for the next meeting.

Couple Plans Anniversary

OAKLAND — Mr. and Mrs. Charles Nine of Sunnyside, near here will celebrate their 55th wedding anniversary Saturday.

On November 16, 1902 Nine was married to Miss Sadie Long of Brookside, W. Va., the ceremony being held at the Methodist Church in Aurora, W. Va. They are the parents of six children, five of whom are still living:

Mrs. Thelma Mersing of Oakland, Mrs. Myrtle Mersing of Crellin, Mrs. Mary Rinehart of Oakland, Mrs. Ellen Legg of South Charleston, W. Va., and Mrs. Mabel Rinehart of Oakhill, W. Va. There are 11 grandchildren and nine great grandchildren.

No celebration is planned as all of the children will be unable to be home.

To Sponsor Supper

DAWSON—The WSCS of Dawson Church is sponsoring a public chicken supper at the church on McMullen Highway Friday from 5 to 8 p.m.

Lonaconing Blood Bank Report Given

LONACONING—The Red Cross bloodmobile, despite a wave of flu-like illness which swept this community the past couple of weeks, collected 38 pints of blood at the regular visit to the VFW home here.

Members of the Young Woman's Club had made an effort to recruit enough donors to reach the community quota, Red Cross officials noted, but by the time the date of donations arrived many of these volunteers, along with many other residents who had promised to give blood, were ill.

There were 12 first-time donors at the blood bank, a record number, indicative of the job done by the club. There were 21 volunteer walk-ins. Six were rejected because of recent illness or colds.

Physicians on duty included Dr. James Wolverton, Piedmont; Dr. Martin M. Rothstein, Frostburg and Dr. Leslie R. Miles, here.

Ernest Poland, Barton, became a member of the Two-Gallon Club and Cecil Metz, also of Barton, became a member of the Gallon Club.

Tri-Towns Venture Club Plans Project

WESTERNPORT — The Tri-Towns Venture Club has selected the project of repairing and distributing toys to needy children at Christmas time.

Persons having toys which can be repaired are asked to contact Margaret Devine, Westernport, 22666 or any member of the club.

The club will meet Monday at the home of Miss Devine, Oak View, and will begin work on the repair of toys.

Michigan farmers receive most of their income from dairy products.

FSTC Practice Teaching Posts Listed In County

Frederick County—Allen Grumbine.

Circle To Hear Talk

FROSTBURG — Mrs. Dorothy Cousins, Edinburgh, Scotland, who is visiting her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Miller, Eckhart, will be guest speaker at the meeting of the Jean Rowland Circle of First Methodist Church tomorrow at 7:30 p.m. in the recreation hall.

Mrs. Cousins was connected with the Billy Graham Crusade in Scotland, and was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Graham.

Talk Contest Elimination Slated Friday

KEYSER — Friday is the new date set for school elimination in the "Voice of Democracy" contest sponsored by the Tri-Towns Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Because of absenteeism in schools due to the flu-like illnesses of many students, the final date for the area was moved a week. The contest to decide who will represent this section in the Maryland state finals will be held November 22.

The area winner this year will be invited to present the winning speech before the Tri-Towns Jaycees at a meeting December 2.

The Jaycees are encouraging all Tenth, Eleventh and Twelfth Grade students in Keyser, Piedmont and Westernport High schools to participate in this script writing and voice competition.

Full information is available at the schools and the area finals will be held at Potomac State College at 8 p. m. November 22. Judges will be announced later.

A key will be awarded individual school winners, plus a traveling trophy to the high school of the winning student.

Appeal Made

An appeal has been made for new and used clothing to be distributed to needy and less fortunate individuals here.

The Keyser Kiwanis Club committee for underprivileged children, of which Edward Daskal is chairman, cites the need for local families to donate wearable clothing. Recent requests for items of wearing apparel have been heavier than usual.

Persons who wish to donate new or used wearable clothing, especially for children, are asked to leave it at the Keyser Candy Company, 19 Armstrong Street, or to call Daskal at Keyser 42115, and he will arrange for a pickup.

Bake Sale Tomorrow

WESTERNPORT — The Band Parents Association of Bruce High School will hold a bake sale tomorrow in the storeroom next to Sanitary Meat Market, Main Street, beginning at 10 a.m.

Dinner To Honor Retired Employes Of Plant At Luke

LUKE—The annual dinner for retired employes of the Luke plant of the West Virginia Pulp and Paper Company will be held tomorrow at the Upper Potomac Shrine Club on Route 50 near Burlington.

Walter D. McVicar, assistant manager of business administration, will be toastmaster. The invocation will be given by Rev. Robert T. Shade, pastor of Mt. Calvary Lutheran Church, Westernport. John A. Luke, manager of the Luke plant, will extend the welcome.

In addition to retired employes, guests at the dinner will include department heads and representatives of the three unions at the Luke mill.

Lukas Addresses Piedmont Club

PIEDMONT—A talk by Peter Lukas, Frostburg, featured the monthly meeting of the Piedmont Woman's Club at the Presbyterian Church.

The theme of the program was "Consider the Blessings of Freedom," which is recommended by the General Federation of Women's Clubs as a tie-in with "Know Your American Week."

It was announced that the Eastern District of the West Virginia Federation of Women's Club will meet at White Sulphur Springs in March, 1958. The local club will be co-hostess.

A letter of resignation from Mrs. Madeliene Elliott, chairman of the Status of Women, was read and accepted.

It was voted that the members will bring clothing for winter use at the December meeting. Articles will be turned over to Middle East Incorporated.

A contribution of $50 for the County United Fund was authorized.

Hostesses were Mrs. Arthur Hartman, Mrs. John Walsh, Mrs. P. E. Berry, Mrs. J. D. Thomas, Mrs. J. E. Suter, Mrs. Wilbur Myers and Miss Edith Michael.

A vaccine is prepared from dead bacteria; serum comes from the blood.

Bretz Residents Request Water From Parsons Area

PARSONS—A committee composed of Edward L. Simmons, Don Good, William Delaney and William Nelson appeared recently before the Parsons Council to discuss the possibility of obtaining town water for the community of Bretz.

Simmons, spokesman for the group, told council that property owners in the community were willing to cooperate with the Town of Parsons in any way in order to obtain water.

After much discussion a committee composed of William R. Barrick, Ona Hovatter and Harold W. Shaffer was appointed by Mayor John Kenney to make a survey of the project and report at the next meeting of the council.

A building permit was granted to H. Dale Ridgway who is building an addition to his present dwelling on Third Street.

Council voted to allow town employes sick leave of one and one-half days each month, not to exceed 15 days in one fiscal year, providing they have been employed by the town for a period of at least six months. The attending physician's certificate must accompany all orders for sick leave before payment will be allowed.

Mayor Kenney told council that he had been approached by civic organizations for financial assistance in redecorating the auditorium and kitchen of the town building. Council voted to spend $200 towards improving of the building and the town's building committee will work with the civic organizations in making the improvements.

A financial statement for October was given by Tracy L. Nestor, recorder, who told councilmen that the finances in the water fund were exceptionally low.

Program Set

Tentative plans for the annual Tucker County 4-H Club officers training and achievement day were completed at a 4-H Club leaders meeting held in the county extension office.

Achievement Day will be held November 23 at 1 p.m. at Camp Kidd. According to Mrs. Carl R. Barr, 4-H Club agent, there will be two officers training meetings. One will be held in Parsons and the other in the upper end of the county. Further details of the meetings will be announced later.

Officers for the year were elected as follows: H. Dale Ridgway, president; Mrs. Lester Miller, treasurer and Mrs. Clyde Harner, secretary.

Dwelling Permit Issued By County

A permit to build a home has been issued to a Keyser, W. Va., resident by the Allegany County Assessing Department.

The home, according to Donald R. McCoole, will be constructed at a cost of about $4,000 in District 31 of this county. The one and one-half story dwelling, which will measure 29 feet by 39 feet, will have a concrete block foundation. It will also have concrete block walls and a composition roof. Completion of the home is expected next July.

CUF Headquarters To Close Friday

County United Fund officials announce the staff at the campaign headquarters in the County Building on Union Street will continue receiving reports there until Friday.

Workers who haven't yet made their final reports to headquarters are asked to make them sometime this week so the auditors can make a final tabulation.

Gold Star Mothers To Elect Tonight

The Gold Star Mothers Club will meet at 8 p. m. at the American Legion Home. Election of officers will be held.

Bat Catching Tips Offered

ANN ARBOR, Mich. — (INS) — Want to catch a bat?

William H. Burt, curator of mammals at the University of Michigan, advises collectors first to check with their state conservation departments and see if a permit is required. Hunting and trapping licenses may also be required.

Burt says hoary, red and silver haired solitary bats hang in the branches of trees but can be readily captured in the evening, when they are flying at the edges of trees or near water. He states:

"The most effective means of securing them is by using a shotgun with light dust loads. However, it requires some practice and skill to hit bats on the wing."

Other colonial-type bats can be found in recesses of hollow trees or house attics. Burt adds to get "perfect specimens" use a pair of forceps at least 12 inches long to reach into crevices and extract the bats from their hiding places.

'Good Samaritan' Aids Mishap Victims

MASON CITY, Iowa (AP) — A "Good Samaritan" came along when a two-car accident occurred on a country road near Mason City.

He was C. W. Code of Mason City, a telephone company lineman, who also is a first aid instructor.

After giving first aid, Code climbed a nearby telephone pole, hooked into a line and called for medical help.

West Side To Hold Parent Visitation

Visitation of parents will be held at West Side School tomorrow from 1:15 until 2:15.

Homer Higgins, pupil personnel, is to speak to the parents in the auditorium. His topic is "How Schools Are Financed."

Concluding the talk a social will be held and refreshments will be served.

The first cigarettes were made by the Turks in the 18th century.

Family Preacher

BANGOR, Maine (AP)—The Rev. Charles A. Marstaller of Bangor's Essex Street Baptist Church, has a special fondness for the family of Mr. and Mrs. George Getcheel of Newburgh. Mr. Marstaller officiated at the marriage of each of the Getchell's seven children—five daughters and two sons.

Man Sentenced For Non-Support

A 34-year-old local man yesterday was found guilty of non-support of his wife and five children at a hearing in Juvenile Court.

Magistrate Fred H. Anderson sentenced Harold L. Robinette of 607 Leiper Street to serve two years in the House of Correction.

FALSE TEETH That Loosen Need Not Embarrass

Many wearers of false teeth have suffered real embarrassment because their plate dropped, slipped or wobbled at just the wrong time. Do not live in fear of this happening to you. Just sprinkle a little FASTEETH, the alkaline (non-acid) powder, on your plates. Hold false teeth more firmly, so they feel more comfortable. Does not sour. Checks "plate odor" (denture breath). Get FASTEETH at any drug counter.

In Memoriam

In loving memory of my son, John Junior Phillips, killed in action, Nov. 13, 1943.
To a beautiful garden, my son has gone.
To a land of perfect rest.
His work is done, and the setting sun,
Has sealed his life's long quest.
He has left this earthly garden.
For a home beyond the sea;
Though he has gone, he still lives on,
In the garden of memory.
Sadly missed by his parents, brothers and sisters.
MR. AND MRS. JOHN PHILLIPS

BUY A BETTER USED CAR AT Thompson Buick

55 Buick Century HT
Ever wish for big car quality, power and safety with easy parking size? Buy this modern engineered car of class and distinction with new premium Whitewall Tires, smoothness of Variable Pitch Dynaflow. Your family will back you up on this beautiful sport model as lovely as a bird in flight. The big depreciation is off. You can get it easy!

54 Buick Special HT
Want economy with your comfort and safety? Here's a lovely two-tone sports model that will give you and your family a thrill. For that extra zip and last drop of economy it is equipped with standard shift, Whitewall Tires, R & H, OS Mirrors, custom trim. The easy payments will surprise you.

53 Buick Super Sedan
If new car prices are too high, do the next best thing, get a FULLY EQUIPPED car in the fine car field and save money. Many of your friends are doing it. Here is the popular Super with engineering more modern than in the latest of many makes. Why not give your family the comfort and safety of a "Million Dollar Ride," the smoothness of Dynaflow and the ease of operating a Power Steering car? Payments so low you'll hardly notice them.

50-51-52 Buicks
Your choice of equipment. Why not have the same comfort and safety in a second car or your regular family car? These models have the same engineering and rugged construction that keeps Buick's on the road years after lighter cars are no longer safe or dependable. With Buick's styling they're still beautiful. Priced so low no family should walk or wait for a bus.

Mary Haworth's Mail

Editor's Note: Wed 21 years, woman obtained divorce; Mate didn't protest but wants her back.

DEAR MARY HAWORTH: How does a man go about winning back a divorced wife? Joyce and I were married 21 years to the day when she came home and asked for a divorce.

She has a doctor's degree in science and went to work in a laboratory in an upstate city, and while there she lives with a divorcee, a friend of hers. Also another close friend of hers is divorced.

Joyce was 41 yesterday. Our children are grown — one is married: two in college. The divorce will be final next month.

Since Leaving, Wife Is Tense

Joyce is back in town occasionally, and comes out to the house; but she is nervous and tense, also terribly belligerent. Perhaps I should explain, she started the divorce action in September and I didn't contest it. I guess I've made things too easy for her.

She said she wanted a man for a husband; that she didn't have any respect for me. She left home and family; just walked out. I would love to have her back again. Can you help me? —V. P.

Seems Marriage Lacked Vitality

DEAR V. P.: It must have been a pretty non-vital marriage, if your wife just walked out, to take up the half-life of a divorcee, and you numbly let her go, in a mood of acquiescence. Apparently it is only now, after a lengthening experience of loneliness, that you've begun to hunger avidly for a new lease on her society.

Furthermore, the toneless quality of your recital — which is curiously devoid of feeling and emphasis, and reviews the story in a surface sort of way — suggests that you may be a rather unresponsive party in your personal affiliations. And possibly it is this listless attitude that prompts your wife to say she "wants a man for a husband" and that she lacks respect for you.

As for how to go about winning her back — it may be that time will operate in your favor; that she will find that she carries herself with her, wherever she goes; and that happiness isn't to be found simply by leaving one set of circumstances for another.

Time May Prove Reconstructive

In short, if you let her try wings with your blessings: if you remain open-hearted, always glad to see her, and meanwhile make a real effort to rise out of your own mistakes, she may choose to return to the family in a year or two.

Her present situation, of sharing living quarters with another divorcee (isn't that the picture?) is rather a hollow arrangement, I should think, as compared to the average brand of real domesticity. It probably engenders her recent nervous tension and shrill belligerency. Her emotional energies lack adequate release, now that she is mostly out of contact with husband and children — hence the mounting frustration.

The give-and-take of intimate family life — the hair down frankness, the forum for sharp and candid disagreements at times, as well as the sustaining closeness of flesh-and-blood kinship, that naturally gives rise to genuine mutual solicitude — all this is particularly necessary to womankind.

Special Cross Of Lone Women

One of the special crosses of the woman alone in the world is the necessity of containing all of her intimate life, so to speak, within her own skin. This incalculable stress is probably more crucially felt by the widow or divorcee than by the spinster. The latter has her own problems, of course; but at least she hasn't become accustomed to the privileges and consolations of married self-sharing and other-sharing, and then painfully deprived of them. Which is a traumatic experience, comparable to amputation.

Well, it's this kind of shock that your wife is enduring, as of now. And your chances of courting her back into the traces will be vastly improved, if you get first-hand guidance from a good psychologist in learning really to have feelings, and to act on them constructively. Thus far you've lived so long without letting your feelings show, that they've gone to sleep — into a kind of coma, I think.—M. H.

Mary Haworth counsels through her column, not by mail or personal interview. Write her in care of The Evening Times.

Overtrick Is Defense Gift

By OSWALD JACOBY
Written for NEA Service

South's three no-trump bid was the height of optimism, and when East doubled, South ran to four diamonds. East doubled that also and then forgot to set the contract.

West opened the deuce of hearts. East won with the king and led his singleton trump. This was won in dummy and the jack of hearts was led. East won with the ace and decided that he could afford to lead another heart. He assumed that his partner held four hearts and saw no danger.

South huddled awhile and finally went up with his queen. When West dropped the ten, South was home free. One of dummy's clubs went on that trick. The ace of trumps pulled West's remaining trump and the other club went on the nine of hearts.

Now all South had to lose was the ace of spades, but he didn't even lose that trick. He led his singleton spade and West ducked. Up went dummy's king and South had made an overtrick.

I don't think much of East's double of four diamonds. He could not expect to hurt the contract and might well have been satisfied to try to beat it undoubled.

I think less of his defense. He really should have cashed his ace of clubs and hoped to find his partner with the ace of spades. True enough, the heart lead did not look dangerous, but he had nothing to gain by holding back his club trick. It was a lead-pipe cinch that he was not going to make two club tricks any way the play developed.

Your Horoscope

Look in the section in which your birthday comes and find what your outlook is, according to the stars.

For Thursday, Nov. 14, 1957

MARCH 21 to APRIL 20 (Aries)—Be aware of the changing scene, new methods, competition. Take advantage of present opportunities to advance. Consult those who may be able to aid, guide you.

APRIL 21 to MAY 21 (Taurus)—Put plans in synopsis form, then develop them according to your best interests—along lines suited to your talents, needs. Take pride in achievement and keep your ambitions lofty.

MAY 22 to JUNE 21 (Gemini)—Handle difficult situations gracefully, diplomatically. Watch for pitfalls that might be overlooked in your rush to get things done. Your likeable personality and keen mentality are fine assets; use them.

JUNE 22 to JULY 23 (Cancer)—Start the day off with a sturdy, encompassing program that will put you well on your way toward your goals. Vision and determination will be helpful. Be amenable to good suggestions.

JULY 24 to AUGUST 23 (Leo)—Back your efforts with convincing oratory—not the flowery type, but a genuine expression of what you really believe in. Your earnestness can attract desired results now.

AUGUST 24 to SEPTEMBER 23 (Virgo)—Analyze your day's requirements, then, in the order of importance, handle all with dispatch, decision, capability—as you so well can. Help others as you advance along the road to success.

SEPTEMBER 24 to OCTOBER 23 (Libra)—Advice to Taurus applies here, too. Generate more enthusiasm for the finer things. Worthwhile accomplishment will give you great pleasure. Avoid aimless rushing.

OCTOBER 24 to NOVEMBER 22 Scorpio)—As the year nears its end, be sure to give it your best in both effort and ambition. Be mindful of current opportunities which are yours for the taking. Show your spirit and spunk.

NOVEMBER 23 to DECEMBER 21 (Sagittarius)—Family and business interests should have your unhurried attention now. Leave irrelevent matters out of your schedule. Give associates a feeling of cooperation.

DECEMBER 22 to JANUARY 20 (Capricorn)—Temper your usual enthusiasm with common sense lest you go overboard in any endeavor or activity. Day requires quiet thought and action to better interests.

JANUARY 21 to FEBRUARY 19 (Aquarius)—Move with surety and pattern now. Avoid controversy, needless criticism in business ventures.

FEBRUARY 20 to MARCH 20 (Pisces)—Be cautious in extra-curricular activities. Day lends itself to routine matters, steady progress, careful planning. Enlist the aid of experienced heads if something stumps you.

YOU BORN TODAY are generally strong in character, have keen judgment and a flair for directorship. At times your ideas may prove a drain on your physical or financial reservoir. In that case, call on your common sense and a sane analysis to show you the way. Although you are fond of the luxuries of life, if need be you can temporarily turn to the economical side of your nature to see you through. ## Welsh Wants Chance To Take Warden Exam

Charles W. Welsh, one of the applicants for a position as dog warden for Allegany County, wrote the board yesterday to see if he could not arrange to take the Civil Service test for one of the two positions.

Welsh, who has been humane officer for the City of Cumberland about four years, told the board that he had the flu and was unable to attend the examination given last week. The matter was referred to Woodward Pealer, chairman of the County Civil Service Board, for a decision.

Gas Franchise Pact Discussed

The Mayor and Council plans to act on a proposed franchise agreement with the C&A Gas Company at its meeting Monday, December 2.

Plans for advertising the proposed agreement were made yesterday at a meeting with James Alfred Avirett, attorney for the company.

The agreement calls for payment of $3,500 to the city annually.

HERE is a pleasant little game that will give you a message every day. It is a numerical puzzle designed to spell out your fortune. Count the letters in your first name. If the number of letters is 6 or more, subtract 4. If the number is less than 6, add 3. The result is your key number. Start at the upper left-hand corner of the rectangle and check every one of your key numbers, left to right. Then read the message the letters under the checked figures give you.

Damage Suit Action Filed

Suit was docketed today in Circuit Court for $10,000 damages for injuries suffered by a Cumberland youth while he was allegedly employed as a helper on a truck of a local soft drink bottling concern.

Kenneth Leroy Keefer, son of Elnor May and Leroy M. Keefer, 1008 Gay Street, filed the suit against the Pepsi-Cola Bottling Company, Paca and Chase Streets, for injuries suffered in an accident at the intersection of U.S. Route 50 and U.S. Route 220 near Keyser on May 2, 1956.

The declaration, docketed by William R. Carscaden and W. Earle Cobey, attorneys for the plaintiff, states that the Keefer youth was employed as a helper on the truck while making deliveries by Robert N. Senn, the driver and agent of the company.

It was stated that the youth was seated in the cab next to Senn and when the door flew open Senn swerved the truck and it upset and pinned the youth underneath. The youth suffered a fractured left leg and shock, according to the declaration.

Civilian Test Pilot Dies In Copter Crash

PATUXENT RIVER, Md. (AP)—One civilian test pilot was killed and another injuried yesterday when a HR2S helicopter crashed and burned on a runway at the Patuxent River Naval Air Station.

Station officials identified the dead pilot as Leon W. Pierce of Stratford, Conn., and the injured pilot as James L. Ferguson of Stratford. Ferguson was taken to the Bethesda Naval Hospital. The extent of his injuries was not known.

Both men were employed by the Sikorsky Aircraft Co. of Stratford.

A spokesman for the station said the crash was being investigated and details were not available.

Court Asked To Stay Out Of Dispute

WASHINGTON (AP) — The State of Maryland says the U. S. Supreme Court should keep hands off a fight between Maryland and Virginia over use of the Potomac River.

Virginia has asked the court for permission to file suit against Maryland, because the Free State's 1957 General Assembly abrogated the historic Potomac River Compact of 1785.

A reply brief, which Maryland's Asst. Atty. Gen. Joseph S. Kaufman said he filed with the court yesterday, took the position that Virginia does not state "a case of controversy" within the contitutional meaning.

For this reason, Maryland argued, the Supreme Court should not invoke its original jurisdiction in the matter.

Maryland legislators, eliminating the 172-year-old agreement, did not prohibit Virginians from fishing or taking oysters from the Potomac. But they did require the Virginians to obtain Maryland licenses.

Maryland took the action claiming that Virginia had flouted conservation practices to which both states had agreed. Millions of dollars worth of oysters in the river are at stake in the dispute.

Virginia had asked the Supreme Court to temporarily restrain Maryland from making the change but the court refused. It said it would rule later on Virginia's request that it be permitted to file suit.

Maryland's latest petition contended that Virginia's request "presents no more than an abstract question respecting the privileges of Virginians to fish in the Potomac River in the indefinite future." And it cited previous cases intending to show the court has refused "to answer abstract questions."

The brief prepared by Maryland Atty. Gen. C. Ferdinand Sybert and two of his assistants, said Maryland did not originally intend through the compact to "relinquish the trust imposed upon it to conserve the public right of fishery" on the river.

It also said Virginia is seeking protection of "political rights" rather than "rights of persons or property" and therefore, "does not have a substantial and direct property interest" in the suit.

Incidents of the "oyster war" in the past have included exchange of gunfire between boats of the two states.

Virginia Asst. Atty. Gen. C. F. Hicks has said a Supreme Court ruling on Virginia's request to sue is not expected until late in December.

Retired Officer Has Trouble With Garden

FOSTORIA, Ohio (AP) — That vegetable garden that retired Police Capt. Robert Walters dreamed about is having neighbor trouble.

The first time Walters planted it, a neighbor accidentally went over the boundary and disked it as part of his cornfield.

The garden was replanted and nearing maturity when a neighbor employed a crop dusting plane to kill weeds in his corn. The weed killer finished off Walter's garden again.

"Maybe next year," says Walters.
